23. Any police may arrest: -

- 1) any person who commits an offence in his presence notwithstanding any provision in the third column of Appendix A that an arrest may not be made without a warrant;
- 2) With or without a court order or warrant only in the circumstances mentioned in section 39 of this law;
- 3) Upon a request by the police, the Attorney-General shall, not later than 3 days of receiving such request assign a law officer to work with the police in the investigation of indictable offence provided that this provision shall not derogate from the powers of the police to conduct investigation speedily.

Mode of arrest.

24. A suspect or Accused person alleged to have committed an offence established by a law of the State House of Assembly shall be arrested, investigated, inquired into, tried or dealt with according to the provisions of this law, except otherwise provided by this law.

Manner of arrest.

25. In making an arrest, the police officer or other persons making the arrest shall actually touch or confine the body of the suspect, unless there is a submission to the custody by word or action.

No unnecessary restraint.

26. A suspect or Accused person shall not be handcuffed, bound or be subjected to restrain except:

- a) there is reasonable apprehension of violence or an attempt to escape;
- b) the restraint is considered necessary for the safety of the suspect or Accused person; or
- c) by order of a court.

Notification of cause of arrest and rights of suspect.

27. (1) Except when the suspect is in the actual course of the commission of an offence or is pursued immediately after the commission of an offence or has escaped from lawful custody, the police officer or other persons making the arrest shall inform the suspect immediately of the reason for the arrest.

(2) The police officer or the person making the arrest shall inform the suspect of his rights to: -

- a) remain silent or avoid answering any question until after consultation with a legal practitioner or any other person of his own choice;
- b) consult a legal practitioner of his choice before making endorsing or writing any statement or answering any question put to him after arrest; and
- c) free legal representation by the Legal Aid Council of Nigeria where applicable:

Provided the authority having custody of the suspect shall have the responsibility of notifying the next of kin or relative of the suspect of the arrest at no cost to the suspect.

Arrest in lieu prohibited.

28. A person shall not be arrested in place of a suspect.

Humane treatment of arrested suspect.

29. (1) A suspect shall: -

- a) be accorded humane treatment, having regard to his right to the dignity of his person; and
- b) not be subjected to any form of torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment.

(2) A person shall not be arrested merely on a civil wrong or breach of contract.

(3) A suspect shall be brought before the court as prescribed by this law or any other law or otherwise released conditionally or unconditionally.

(4) The arraignment and trial of a suspect for a crime shall be in accordance with the provisions of this law unless otherwise stated in this law.

arrested suspect.*

30. (1) Where a suspect is arrested by a police officer or a private person, the officer making the arrest or to whom the private person hands over the suspect:

a) may search the suspect, using such force as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose; and

b) shall keep in safe custody all articles other than necessary wearing apparel found on the suspect.

(2) Where a suspect is admitted to bail he shall not, subject to the provisions of this section be searched unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that he has on his person any:

a) stolen articles;

b) instruments of violence or poisonous substance;

c) tools connected with the kind of offence which he is alleged to have committed; or

d) other articles which may furnish evidence against him in regard to the offence, which he is alleged to have committed.

(3) Where it is necessary to search a suspect, the search shall be made decently and by a person of the same sex.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a police officer or any other person making an arrest may in any case take from the suspect any instrument of violence or poisonous substance which he has on his person.

Inventory of property of arrested suspect.

31. (1) A police officer making an arrest or to whom a private person hands over the suspect, shall immediately record information about the suspect and take an inventory of all items or property recovered from the suspect.

(2) An inventory recorded under subsection (1) of this section, shall be duly signed by the police officer and the suspect, but the failure or neglect of the suspect to sign the inventory shall not invalidate it.

(3) The suspect, his legal practitioner or such other person, as the suspect may direct, shall be given a copy of the inventory.

(4) Where any property has been taken under this section from a suspect, a police officer may, upon request by either the owner of the property or parties having interest in the property, release such property on bond pending the arraignment of the suspect before a court.

(5) Where a police officer refuses to release the property to the owner or any person having interest in the property under subsection (4) of this section, the police officer shall make a report to the court of the fact of the property taken from the arrested suspect and the particulars of the property.

(6) The court to which a report is made under subsection (5) of this section, may, if it is of the opinion that the property or any portion of it can be returned in the interest of justice to the safe custody of the owner or person having interest in the property, direct that the property or any portion of it be returned to the owner or to such person having interest in the property.

(5) Where any property has been taken from a suspect under this section, and the suspect is not charged before a court but is released on the ground that there is no sufficient reason to believe that he has committed an offence, any property so taken from the suspect shall be returned to him, provided the property is neither connected to nor a proceed of an offence.

32. Where a person is in lawful custody on a charge of committing an offence of such a nature and under circumstances that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an examination of his person will afford evidence as to the commission of the offence, a qualified medical practitioner or any certified professional with relevant skills, acting on the request of a police officer, may make such an examination of the suspect in custody as is reasonably necessary in order to obtain the requisite evidence necessary for his prosecution.

*Search of place entered by suspect sought to be

33. (1) Where a person or police officer acting under a warrant of arrest or otherwise having authority to arrest, has reason to believe that the suspect to be arrested has entered into or is within any house or place, the person residing in or being in charge of the house or place shall, on demand by the police officer or person acting for the police officer, allow him free access to the house or place and afford all reasonable facilities to search the house or place for the suspect sought to be arrested.

(2) Where access to a house or place cannot be obtained under subsection (1) of this section, the person or police officer may enter the house or place and search it for the suspect to be arrested, and in order to effect an entrance into the house or place, may break open any outer or inner door or window of any house or place, whether that of the suspect to be arrested or of any other person or otherwise effect entry into such house or place, if after notification of his authority and purpose, and demand of admittance duly made, he cannot obtain admittance.

(3) Where the suspect to be arrested enters a house or place in the actual occupancy of another person being a woman who by custom or region practice does not appear in public, the person making the arrest shall: -

- a) before entering the house or place, give notice to the woman that she is at liberty to withdraw; and

- b) afford her every reasonable opportunity and facility for withdrawing, and may then enter the house or place, but the notice shall not be necessary where the person making the arrest is a woman.

person and arrest by property owner.*

41. (1) A private person may arrest a suspect in the state who in his presence commits an offence, or whom he reasonably suspects of having committed an offence for which the police are entitled to arrest without a warrant.

(2) A suspect found committing an offence involving injury to property may be arrested without a warrant by the owner of the property or his servants, agents or any other person.

(3) A private person may arrest any suspect found damaging public property.

Handing over of an arrested suspect of private person.

42. (1) A private person who arrests a suspect without a warrant shall immediately hand over the suspect so arrested to a police officer, or, in the absence of a police officer, shall take the suspect to the nearest police station, and the police officer shall make a note of the name, address and other particulars of the private person making the arrest.

(2) Where there is reason to believe that the arrested suspect comes under the provisions of section 39 (1) of this law, a police officer shall re-arrest him.

(3) Where there is reason to believe that the suspect has committed an offence, and he refuses on the demand of a police officer to give his name and address or give a name or address which the officer reasonably believes to be false, he shall be dealt with under the provisions of section 40(2) of this law.

(4) Where a suspect so arrested by a private person is handed over to a police officer or to an official of an agency authorized by law to make arrest, the police officer or official shall take note of the name, residential address and other particulars of the private person making the arrest, and the date, time and other circumstances of the arrest, and where the arrested suspect is taken to the police station or to the agency, the officer in charge shall make the entries in the crime diary or relevant record.

(5) The police officer or official to whom the arrested suspect is handed over by the private person shall obtain from the private person who made the arrest a formal witness statement setting out the facts and circumstances of the arrest.

(6) Where there is sufficient reason to believe that the suspect handed over has committed an offence, he shall immediately be re-arrested but if there is no sufficient reason to believe that the suspect has committed an offence, he shall be released immediately:

Provided that no person shall be liable for any action carried out in good faith.

(7) The provisions of section 36 of this law, do not apply to this section unless the suspect arrested and handed over has been re-arrested in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.

Arrest for offence committed in presence of Judge or Magistrate.

43. Where an offence is committed in the presence of a Judge or Magistrate within the division or district in which the Judge is sitting or to which the Magistrate is assigned, the Judge or Magistrate may himself arrest or order a person to arrest the suspect and may thereupon, subject to the provisions contained in this law as to bail, commit the suspect to custody.

(2) A Magistrate may arrest or direct the arrest in his presence of a suspect whose arrest on a warrant he could have lawfully ordered if the facts known to him at the time of making or directing the arrest had been stated before him on oath by some other person.

(3) Where a suspect is arrested in accordance with the provisions of either subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the Judge or Magistrate making or directing the making of such arrest may deal with the suspect so arrested in the same manner as if the suspect had been brought before him by any other person.

(4) A Judge or Magistrate may arrest or direct the arrest of a suspect committing an offence in his presence and shall thereupon hand him over to a police officer who shall proceed to take necessary action.

When public is bound to assist in arrest.

44. A person is bound to assist a Judge or Magistrate, police or other person reasonably demanding his aid in arresting or preventing the escape of a suspect whom the Judge, Magistrate, police officer or other person is authorized to arrest.

*Pursuit of suspect
jurisdictions.*

45. A person authorized to effect the arrest of any suspect may, for the purpose of effecting the arrest, pursue him into any part of the State.

Quarterly report of arrests to the Attorney-General.

46. (1) The Commissioner of Police and the head of every agency authorized by law to make arrest within the state shall remit quarterly to the Attorney-General a record of all arrests made with or without warrant in relation to offence or arrests within the State.

(2) The report shall contain the full particulars of arrested suspects as prescribed by Section 36 of this law.

(3) A register of arrests containing the particulars prescribed in Section 36 of this law, shall be kept in the prescribed form at every police station or agency authorized by law to make arrests, and every arrest, whether made with or without warrant, within the local limits of the police station or agency, shall be entered accordingly by the officer in charge of the police station or official in charge of the agency as soon as the suspect is brought to the station or agency.

(4) The Attorney-General shall establish an electronic and manual database of all records of arrest in the state.

*Release on bail of a suspect arrested
without warrant.*

47. (1) Where a suspect has been taken into police custody without a warrant for an offence other than an offence punishable with death, an officer in charge of the police station shall inquire into the case and release the suspect on bail subject to subsection (2) of this section where it is not practicable to bring the suspect before a court having jurisdiction with respect to the offence alleged within 24 hours after the arrest.

(2) The officer in charge of a police station shall release the suspect on bail on his entering into a recognizance with or without sureties upon the execution of a bond to appear before the court or at the police station at the time and place named in the recognizance.

(3) Where a suspect is taken into custody and it appears to the police officer in charge of the station that the offence is of a capital nature, the arrested suspect shall be detained in custody, and the police officer shall refer the matter to the Attorney-General for legal advice and cause the suspect to be taken before a court having jurisdiction with respect to the offence within a reasonable time.

Power to release on bail before charge is accepted.

48. (1) Where a suspect is taken into custody, and it appears to the officer that the inquiry into the case cannot be completed forthwith, he may discharge the suspect on his entering into a recognizance, with or without sureties upon the execution of a bond, to appear at the police station and at such times as are named in the recognizance, unless he previously receives notice in writing from the police officer in charge of that police station that his attendance is not required.

(2) A recognizance under subsection (1) of this section, may be enforced as if it were a recognizance conditional for the appearance of the said suspect before a Magistrate's court or the place in which the police station named in the recognizance is situate.

Remedy of suspect detained in custody.

49. Where a suspect taken into custody in respect of a non-capital offence is not released on bail after 24 hours, a court having jurisdiction with respect to the offence may be notified by application on behalf of the suspect.

(2) The court shall order the production of the suspect detained and inquire into the circumstances constituting the grounds of the detention and where it deems fit, admit the suspect detained to bail.

(3) An application for bail under this section may be made orally or in writing.

*Police to report monthly to
Magistrate.*

50. (1) An officer in charge of a police station or an official in charge of an agency authorized to make arrest shall, on the last working day of every month, report to the nearest Magistrate or any available Court the cases of all suspects arrested without warrant within the limits of their respective stations or agency whether the suspects have been admitted to bail or not.

(2) The report shall contain the particulars of the suspects arrested as prescribed in Section 36 of this law.

(3) The Magistrate shall on receipt of the report, forward them to the Administration of Criminal Justice Monitoring Committee Justice Sector Reform Team which shall analyze the reports and advice the Attorney-General as to the mode of arrest, bail and related matters.

(4) The Attorney-General may, upon request by the National Human Rights Commission, the Legal Aid Council of Nigeria or a Non-Governmental Organization, make the report available.

(5) Where no report is made in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the Magistrate Court shall forward a report to the Chief Judge for appropriate remedial action.

*Chief Magistrate to visit police stations
every month.*

51. (1) The Chief Magistrate, or where there is no Chief Magistrate within the police division, any Magistrate designated by the Chief Judge for that purpose, shall, at least every month, conduct an inspection of police stations or other places of detention within his territorial jurisdiction other than the prison.

(2) During a visit, the Magistrate may:

a) Call for, and inspect, the record of arrests;

- b) Direct the arraignment of a suspect;
 - c) Where bail has been refused, grant bail to any suspect where appropriate if the offence for which the suspect is held is within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.
- (3) An officer in charge of a police station or official in charge of an agency authorized to make an arrest shall make available to the visiting Chief Magistrate or designated Magistrate exercising his powers under subsection (1) of this section:
- a) the full record of arrest and record of bail;
 - b) applications and decisions on bail within the period; and
 - c) any other facility the Magistrate requires to exercise his powers under that subsection.
- (4) Where there is default by an officer in charge of a police station or official in-charge of an agency authorized to make arrest to comply with the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, the default shall be treated as a misconduct and shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant Police Regulation under the Police Act, or pursuant to any other disciplinary procedure prescribed by any provision regulating the conduct of the officer or official of the agency.
- (5) Where the Police authority refuses to comply with the provision of subsection (4) of this section, any other body or person may make such report to the Justice Sector Reform Team.

*Provisions of sections 33 and 34 to apply to arrests
under section 64.*

65. The provisions of section 33 and 34 of this Law shall apply to arrests under section 64 of this Law, although the person making such arrest is to acting under a warrant and is not a police officer having authority to arrest.

PART 5: PREVENTION OF OFFENCES AND SECURITY FOR GOOD BEHAVIOUR

Police to prevent commission of offences and injury to public property.

66. (1) A Police Officer may intervene for the purpose of preventing, and shall, to the best of his ability, prevent the commission of an offence.

(2) A police officer may on his authority intervene to prevent an inquiry attempted to be committed in his presence to any public property, whether movable or immovable, or removal of or inquiry to any public landmark or body or other mark used for navigation.

Information of design to commit offence.

67. A Police Officer receiving information of a design to commit any offence shall communicate the information to the police to whom he is subordinate, and to any other officer whose duty it is to prevent or take cognizance of the commission of the offence.

Arrest by police to prevent offences.

Prevention by other public officers of offences and injury to public property.

68. Notwithstanding the provision of this Law or any other law relating to arrest, a police officer upon a reasonable suspicion of a design to commit an offence may arrest, without orders from a Magistrate and without warrant, the suspect where it appears to the officer that the commission of the offence cannot otherwise be prevented.

69. (1) A Judge, Magistrate, or any other public officer charged with responsibility for maintaining law and order may intervene for the purpose of preventing and shall, to the best of his ability, prevent the commission of an offence, for which he is authorized to arrest without a warrant or any damage to any public property, movable or immovable.

(2) A person is bound to assist a Judge or Magistrate or police officer or any other public officer reasonably demanding his aid:

(a) in preventing, and shall to the best of his ability, prevent the commission of an offence for which he is authorized to arrest without a warrant or any damage to any public property, movable or immovable;

(b) in the suppression of a breach of the peace or in the prevention of any damage to any property, movable or immovable or to any railway, canal, water supply, telecommunication system, oil pipeline or gas installation, or electrical installation; or

(c) in the prevention of the removal of any public landmark, buoy or other mark used for navigation.

Power of magistrate to require execution of recognizance for keeping peace.

70. (1) Where a Magistrate is informed on oath that a suspect is likely to:

(a) commit a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquility, or

(b) do any wrongful act that may probably occasion a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquility, the Magistrate may, in the manner provided in this Part, require the suspect to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, for keeping the peace for such period, not exceeding one year, as the Magistrate deems fit.

(2) Proceedings shall not be taken under this section unless the suspect is:

- (a) in the State; and
- (b) subject of the information under subsection (1) of this section within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate, or the place where the breach of the peace or disturbance has occurred or where the suspect is within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.

*Security for good behavior
for suspected persons.*

71. Where a Magistrate is informed on oath that:

- (a) a suspect is taking precautions to conceal his presence within the local limits of the Magistrate's district; and
- (b) there is reason to believe that the suspect is taking steps with a view to committing an offence,

the Magistrate may, in the manner provided in this Part, require the suspect to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance, with sureties, for his good behaviour for such period not exceeding 1 year, as the Magistrate deems fit.

*Security for
offenders.*

72. Where a Magistrate is informed on oath that a suspect within the local limits of his jurisdiction:

- (a) is by habit an armed robber, a housebreaker, or a thief;

- (b) is by habit a receiver of stolen property, knowing the same to have been stolen;
- (c) habitually protects or harbours thieves, or aids in the concealment or disposal of stolen property;
- (d) habitually commits or attempts to commit, or aids or abets in the commission of any offence relating to property;
- (e) habitually commits or attempts to commit, or aids or abets in the commission of offence involving a breach of the peace; or
- (f) is so desperate or dangerous as to render his being at large without security hazardous to the community, such Magistrate may, in the manner provided in this law, require such suspect to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance with sureties for his good behaviour for such period, not exceeding 3 years, as the Magistrate deems fit.

Order to be made.

73. Where a Magistrate acting under sections 70, 71, or 72 of this Law considers it necessary to require a suspect to show cause under the sections he shall make an order in writing sitting out:

- (a) the substance of the information received;
- (b) the amount of the recognizance to be executed;
- (c) the term for which it is to be in force; and
- (d) the number, character, and class of sureties, if any, required.

Procedure in respect of suspect present in court.

74. Where the suspect in respect of whom an order is made is present in Court, it shall be read over to him or, if he so desires, the substance of the information shall be explained to him.

Summons or warrant in case of suspect not present.

75. (1) Where the suspect is not present in Court, the Magistrate shall issue a summons requiring him to appear, or, where the suspect is in custody, a warrant directing the officer in whose custody he is to bring him before the court.

(2) Where it appears to the Magistrate, on the report of a police officer or on other information, the substance of which report or information shall be recorded by the Magistrate, that there is reason to fear the commission of a breach of the peace, and that the breach of peace cannot be prevented otherwise than by the immediate arrest of the suspect, the Magistrate may at any time issue a warrant for his arrest.

*Copy of order
under section 75
to accompany
warrant.*

76. A summons or warrant of arrest issued under section 75 of this Law shall be accompanied by a copy of the order made under section 73 of this Law, and the copy shall be delivered by the officer serving or executing the summons or warrant to the suspect served with or arrested under it.

Power to dispense with personal attendance.

77. The Magistrate may, where he sees sufficient cause, dispense with the personal attendance of a suspect called on to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance for keeping the peace, and may permit him to appear by a legal practitioner.

Inquiry as to truth of information.

78. (1) Where an order under section 73 of this Law has been read or explained under section 74 of this Law to a suspect in court, or where the suspect appears or is brought before a Magistrate in compliance with or in execution of a summons or warrant issued under section 75 of this Law, the Magistrate shall proceed to inquire into the truth of the information upon which the action has been taken, and to take such further evidence as may appear necessary.

(2) The inquiry shall be made, as nearly as may be practicable, in the manner prescribed in this section for conditioning trials, and recording evidence, except that the standard of proof shall be that of preponderance of evidence.

(3) Pending the completion of the inquiry under subsection (1) of this section, the Magistrate, if he considers that immediate measures are necessary for the prevention of:

(a) a breach of the peace or disturbance of the public tranquility; or may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct the suspect in respect of whom the order under section 73 of this Law has been made, to enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, for keeping the peace or maintaining good behavior until the conclusion of the inquiry, and may detain the suspect in custody until the recognizance is entered into or, in default of execution, until the inquiry is concluded.

(b) the commission of any offence or for the public safety;

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3) of this section:

(a) A suspect against whom proceedings are not being taken under section 70 of this law shall not be directed to enter into a recognizance for maintaining good behaviour;

(b) The conditions of the recognizance, whether as to the amount or as to the provisions of sureties or the number of sureties or the pecuniary extent of their liability shall not be more onerous than those specified in the order under section 73 of this Law; and

(c) A suspect shall not be remanded in custody under the powers conferred by this section for a period exceeding 15 days at a time.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the fact that a suspect comes within the provisions of section 72 of this Law may be proved by evidence of general repute or otherwise.

(6) Where two or more suspects have been associated together in the matter under inquiry, they may be dealt with in the same or separate inquiries as the Magistrate thinks fit.

Order to give security.

79. (1) Where on an inquiry it is proved that it is necessary for keeping the peace or maintaining good behavior, as the case may be, that the suspect in respect of whom the inquiry is made should enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, the Magistrate shall make an order accordingly, but:

- (a) a suspect shall not be ordered to give security of a nature different from or of an amount larger than or for a period longer than that specified in the order made under section 73 of this Law;
- (b) the amount of a recognizance shall be fixed with due regard to the circumstances of the case and shall not be excessive; and
- (c) where the suspect in respect of whom the inquiry is made is a child, the recognizance shall be entered into as provided in section 186 of this law.

(2) A suspect ordered to give security for good behavior under this section may appeal to High Court.

Discharge of suspect Informed against.

80. Where on an inquiry under section 78 of this Law it is not proved that it is necessary for keeping the peace or maintaining good behavior, as the case may be, that the suspect in respect of whom the inquiry is made should enter into a recognizance, the Magistrate shall make an entry on the record to that effect, and shall, if the suspect is:

- (a) in custody only for the purpose of the inquiry, release him; or
- (b) not in custody, discharge him.

PART 6 : PROCEEDINGS IN ALL CASES SUBSEQUENT TO ORDER TO FURNISH SECURITY

Commencement of period for which security is required.

81. (1) Where a suspect in respect of whom an Order requiring security is made under section 79 of this law is, at the time the order is made, sentenced to or understanding a sentence of imprisonment, the period for which the security is required shall commence on the expiration of the sentence.
- (2) In other cases, the period shall commence on the date of the order unless the Court, for sufficient reason, fixes a later date.

Conditions of recognizance.

82. The recognizance to be entered into by a suspect under section 79 of this Law shall bind him to keep the peace or be of good behavior, as the case may be, and in the latter case the commission or attempt to commit or the aiding, abetting, counseling, or procuring the commission, anywhere within the state, of an offence punishable with imprisonment, whatever it may be committed, any time during the continuance of the recognizance, shall be a breach of the recognizance.

Power to reject sureties.

83. A Court may refuse to accept a surety offered under any of the preceding sections on the ground that, for reasons to be recorded by the Court, the surety is an unfit person.

Procedure on failure of suspect to give security.

84. Where a suspect ordered to give security does not give the security on or before the date on which the period for which the security is to be given commences, he shall, except in the case mentioned in this section, be committed to prison until the period expires or the period he gives the security to the court that made the order requiring it.

Power to release suspect imprisoned for failure to give security.

85. Where a court is of the opinion that a suspect imprisoned for failing to give security may be released without hazard to the community, the Court, may if it deems fit, order the suspect to be discharged.

Power of High Court to cancel recognizance.

86. The High Court may at any time, for sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, cancel any recognizance for keeping the peace or for good behavior executed under any of the proceeding sections by order of any lower court.

Discharge of sureties.

87. (1) A surety for the peaceful conduct or good behavior of another suspect may at any time apply to a court to discharge a recognizance executed under any of the preceding sections within the district or division to which the Court is assigned.

(2) On an application being made, the magistrate shall, if satisfied that there is good reason for the application, issue such summons or warrant, as he thinks fit, requiring the suspect for whom the surety is bound to appear or to be brought before him.

(3) Where the suspect appears or is brought before a Magistrate, the Magistrate after hearing the suspect may discharge the recognizance and order the suspect to give, for the unexpired portion of the term of the recognizance, fresh security for the unexpired portion of the same description as the original security.

(4) An order made under subsection (3) of this section shall, for the purposes of sections 81, 82, 83 and 84 of this Law, be deemed to be an order under section 79 of this Law.

PART 7: PUBLIC NUISANCE

Conditional order for removal of nuisance.

88. Where a court considers, on receiving a police report or other information and on taking such evidence, if any, as it deems fit, that an offence relating to public nuisance is being committed, the Court may make a conditional order requiring the suspect.

(a) within a time in the order to cease committing the offence and to amend or remove the cause of the nuisance in such manner as is specified in the order; or

(b) to appear before the Court at a time and place to be fixed by the order and apply to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided.

Service of order.

89. (1) an order made under section 93 of this Law shall, if practicable, be served on the suspect against whom it is made in the manner provided for the service of a summons.

(2) Where an Order referred to in subsection (1) cannot be served in the manner laid down in that subsection, it may be served by registered courier, addressed to the suspect against whom it is made at his last known address or, where his last address is not known, then by affixing a notice in some conspicuous place in the town or village or near which the nuisance or offence is being committed.

addressed to obey or appear before court.*

90. A suspect against whom an Order under section 93 of this Law made shall:

- (a) perform, within the time and in the manner specified in the order, the act directed by the order; or
- (b) appear in accordance with the Order and apply to have the order set aside or modified.

Consequences of failure to obey order or to appear.

91. Where a suspect against whom an order under section 93 of this Law is made does not perform the act specified in the order or appear and apply to have the order set aside or modified, he is liable, where the act:

- (a) offends public safety, to a fine of not less than One Hundred Thousand Naira (₦ 100,000.00) for an individual or imprisonment for a term of six months and not less than one million naira (₦1,000,000.00) or imprisonment for a term of 6 months in case of a corporate body.
- (b) threaten human life, to a fine of not less than Two Hundred Thousand Naira (₦ 200,000.00) or term of 12 months imprisonment for an individual and not less than Two Million Naira (₦2,000,000.00) or imprisonment for a term of 12 months in case of a corporate body.

Procedure where suspect appears.

92. (1) Where a suspect against whom an Order under section 88 of this Law is made to appear, applies to have the Order set aside or modified, the Court shall take evidence in the matter in the same manner as in a summary trial.

(2) Where the Court is:

- (a) satisfied that the Order, with or without modification, is reasonable and proper, the court shall make it absolute with such modification, if any, as the Court thinks fit; and
- (b) not satisfied, it shall cancel the Order.

Consequences of disobedience to order made absolute.

93. Where the acts directed by an Order under section 88 of this Law which is made absolute under section 91 or 92 (2) (a) of this Law is not performed within the time fixed and in the manner specified in the Order, the Court may cause it to be performed and may recover the cost of performing it either by;

(a) the sale of any building, goods or other property removed by its Order; or

(b) seizure and sale of any other movable property of the person against whom the order under section 88 of this Law was made in the manner prescribed in this Law for the recovery of a fine.

Order pending inquiry.

94. (1) Where the Court in an Order under section 88 of this Law considers that immediate measures should be taken to prevent imminent danger or inquiry of a serious kind to the public, it may issue such further Order to the suspect against whom the Order was made as is required to obviate or prevent the danger or inquiry pending the determination of the matter.

(2) In default of the suspect referred to in subsection (1) of this section immediately disobeying the further order referred to in that subsection or if notice of the order cannot, by the exercise of due diligence, be served on him immediately, the court may use or cause to be used such means as it thinks fit to obviate the danger or to prevent the inquiry.

*Prohibition of repetition or

95. A Court may, in any proceeding under this Part or in any criminal proceeding in respect of a public nuisance, order any suspect not to repeat or continue the public nuisance.

PART 8 :
ATTACHMENT WHERE A PERSON
DISOBEYS SUMMONS OR WARRANT

Suspect absconding.*

96. A Judge or a Magistrate may, at any time after action has been taken under section 61 of this Law or on an application made in that regard after summons or warrant has been issued but disobeyed, Order the attachment of any property, movable or immovable or both, belonging to a suspect the subject of the public summons or warrant.

Order to attach property.

97. (1) An Order under section 96 of this Law shall authorize a public officer named in it to attach any property belonging to a suspect named in the Order as the owner of the property within the area of jurisdiction of the Judge or Magistrate by seizure or in any other manner by which for the time being the property may be attached by way of civil process.

(2) Where, a suspect who is the subject of an Order does not appear within the time specified in the public summons, the property under attachment shall be at the disposal of the Court.

(3) Any property under attachment shall not be sold until the expiration of three months from the date of the attachment unless it is subject to speedy decay or the Judge or Magistrate considers that the sale would be for the benefit of the owner, in either of which cases the Judge or Magistrate may he thinks fit.

*Restoration of attached
property.*

98. (1) Where within one year from the date of the attachment, a suspect, whose property is or has been at the disposal of the Court under section 97 of this Law, appears voluntarily or on being arrested is brought the Court and proves to its satisfaction that he:

- (a) did not abscond or conceal himself for the purpose of avoiding execution of the warrant; and

- (b) had no notice of the public summons or warrant as to enable him to attend within the time specified therein, that property, so far as it has not been sold, and the net proceeds of any part of it which has been sold shall, after satisfying from the proceeds all costs incurred in consequence of the attachment, be delivered to him.

(2) Where, after one year from the date of attachment, the suspect whose property is attached or has been at the disposal of the court does not appear voluntarily, the property or the net proceed of its sale shall be forfeited to the State Government as the case may be.

Issue of warrant in lieu of or in addition to summons.

99. (1) A Court empowered by this law to issue a summons for the appearance of a suspect may, after recording reasons in writing, issue a warrant for his arrest in addition to or instead of the summons where:

- (a) before or after the issue of the summons, the Court sees reason to believe that the suspect has absconded or will not obey the summons; or
- (b) at the time fixed for his appearance, the suspect fails to appear and the summons is proved to have been duly served in time to allow for his appearance and no reasonable excuse is offered for his failure to appear.

(2) A Court empowered by this Law to issue a warrant for the arrest of a suspect may issue a summons in place of a warrant where he thinks fit.

Power to take bond for appearance.

100. Where a suspect for whose appearance or arrest a summons or warrant may be issued is present before a court, the Court may require him to execute a bond, with or without sureties, for his appearance before a court.

Provisions of this Part generally applicable to summons and warrant.

101. The provisions contained in this Part relating to summonses and warrants and their issue, service and execution shall, so far as may, apply to every summons and every warrant issued under this law.

PART 9 :
PROVISIONS RELATING TO CRIMINAL TRIALS AND INQUIRIES IN GENERAL

Application of Parts 9-31.

102. The provisions of this part and parts 10 to 31 of this Law shall apply to all criminal trials and proceedings unless express provision is made in respect of any particular Court or form of trial or proceedings.

General Authority bring suspect before a court.

103. A Court shall have authority to compel the attendance before it of a suspect who is outside the jurisdiction but is charged with an offence committed within the State.

Right of making complaint.

104. A person may make a complaint against any other person alleged to have committed or to be committing an offence.

Form of complaint.

105. (1) It is not necessary that a complaint shall be in writing, unless it is required to be so by the law on which it is founded, or by some other law, and where a complaint is not made in writing, Registrar shall reduce it into writing.
(2) Subject to the provisions of section 129 of this Law, a complaint may, unless some laws otherwise requires, be made without oath.
(3) A complaint may be made by the complainant in person, or by a legal practitioner representing him, or by any person authorized in writing in that behalf.
But the complaint shall not be voided by describing the offence, or any material act relating to it in alternative words according to the language of the law constituting such offence.

(4) All complaints made to the Court directly under this section may first be referred to the police for investigation before any action is taken by the court provided the referral shall include an order not to detain the suspect before investigation.

(5) After the investigation the police shall refer the matter to the Attorney-General.

(6) Any complaint which is based on a civil cause shall not be entertained save such complaints have obvious criminal elements.

(7) In cases involving financial crimes, the investigation authority may apply to a Court having jurisdiction for an Order Ex-parte seeking to freeze an account under investigation. Provided that –

(a) the Ex-parte Order shall abate after 14 days and shall only be renewed for a period not exceeding 14 days.

(b) where the application is to be made by the police, it shall be made through the office of the Attorney-General;

(c) Nothing shall prevent the person affected by the order from applying for the discharge of the said order by way of motion on notice.

documents in
proceedings.*

106. A complaint, summons, warrant or any other document laid, issued or made for the purpose of or in connection with any proceedings before a court for an offence, shall be sufficient if it contains a statement of the specific offence with which the suspect is charged, together with such particulars as may be necessary for giving reasonable information as to the nature of the charge.

Rules as to statement of exception.

107. Any exception, exemption, proviso, condition, excuse, or qualification may be proved by the accused person, but need not be specified or refuted in the complaint, and where so specified or refuted, no proof in relation to the matter so specified or refuted shall be required on the part of the complaint.

Limitation of period for making a private complaint.

108. In every case where no time is specifically limited for making a complaint for a summary conviction for an offence in the law relating to such offence, such complaint, if made other than by a person in his official capacity, shall be made within six years from the time when the matter of such complaint arose, and not after.

PART 10 : PLACE OF TRIAL OR INQUIRY

Venue generally.

109. (1) An offence shall ordinarily be inquired into and tried by a Court within the local limits of its jurisdiction if:

- (a) the offence was wholly or in part committed, or some act forming part of the offence was done within its jurisdiction;
- (b) the consequence of the offence has ensued within its jurisdiction;
- (c) some offences were committed by reference to which the offence is defined; or
- (d) a person against whom, or property in respect of which, the offence was committed is found, having been transported there by the suspect or by a person having knowledge of the offence.

(2) A criminal charge shall be filed and tried in the division or district where the alleged offence was committed unless it can be shown that it is convenient to do otherwise for administrative, security or other reasons.

110. An offence committed while the suspect is in the course of performing a journey or voyage may be tried or inquired into by a Court in the State, division or district of whose jurisdiction the suspect or the person against whom or the thing in respect of which the offence was committed resides, is or passed in the course of that journey or voyage.

Offences commenced and completed in different States.

111. Where an offence:

- (a) is commenced in the State and completed in another State, or
- (b) is completed in the State after being commenced in another State, the suspect may be tried and punished as if the offence had actually or wholly been committed in the State.

Chief Judge to decide question as to court of inquiry or place of trial.

112. Where a question arises as to which of the two or more Courts of the State ought to inquire into or try any offence, it shall be decided by the Chief Judge.

Chief Judge/Grand Khadi may transfer a case.

113. (1) The Chief Judge or Grand Khadi may, where it appears to him that the transfer of a case will promote the ends of justice or will be in the interest of the public peace, transfer any case from one Court to another.

(2) The power of the Chief Judge or Grand Khadi referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall not be exercised where the prosecution has called witness

(3) Where the Chief Judge or Grand Khadi is to exercise this power subsequent to a petition, the Chief Judge or Grand Khadi shall cause the petition to be investigated by an independent body of not more than three reputable legal practitioners within one week of receipt of such petition.

(4) The investigating body shall submit its report within two weeks of appointment except otherwise specified.

When cases may be remitted to another court.

114. A Court before which a person charged with having committed an offence is brought shall, where:

(a) the offence ought to be properly inquired into or tried by another court; or

(b) in the opinion of the Court, the offence ought to be conveniently inquired into or tried by another Court, within a reasonable period not exceeding 7 days, send the case and all processes relating to the case to the head of court for re-assignment to that other court, and where appropriate, remand the accused person charged in custody or require him to give security for his attendance before that other court to answer the charges and to be dealt with accordingly.

Removal under warrant.

115. (1) Where a suspect is to be remanded in custody, a warrant shall be issued by the remitting Court and that warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to:

(2) The person to whom the warrant is directed shall execute it according to its terms without any delay.

Transfer of case where cause of complaint has arisen out of jurisdiction of court.

116. Where a suspect is:

(a) in custody and the court directing a transfer thinks it expedient that the custody should be continued, or

(b) not in custody, that he should be placed in custody, the Court shall, by its warrant, commit the suspect to prison for a period not exceeding 14 days, subject to such security as it may deem appropriate in the circumstances, until he can be taken before a court wherein the cause of complain arose, or is to be dealt with.

Court may assume jurisdiction under certain condition.

117.(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 109 and 113 of this Law, a Judge or Magistrate of a division or district in which a suspect:

- (a) is arrested and charged with an offence, alleged to have been committed in another division or district;
- (b) is in custody on the charge; or
- (c) has appeared in answer to summons lawfully issued charging the offence, may, where he considers that justice would be better served and having regards to the accessibility and convenience of the witness, proceed to hear the charge, try and punish the suspect as if the offence had been committed in the division or district.

(2) The offence referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been committed in that division or district.

*Assumption of jurisdiction after
proceedings.*

118. Where a case is committed in any other division or district than that in which it ought to have been commenced, the Court may assume jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of section 116 of this Law and all acts performed and all decisions given by the court during the trial or any other proceeding shall be deemed to be valid in all respect as if the jurisdiction had been assumed prior to the performance of the acts and the giving of the decisions.

PART 11 :

POWERS OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

*Charge by the
General.*

119.(1) The Attorney-General may prefer a charge in any Court in respect of an offence created by a law of the State House of Assembly.

(2) The Attorney-General may authorize any other person to exercise any or all the powers conferred on him under this section.

Issuance of legal advice and other directives to police.

120. (1) The Attorney-General may issue legal advice or such other directive to the Police or any other law enforcement agency in respect of an offence created by a law of the State House of Assembly.

(2) Where any proceeding is pending in respect of the offence for which legal advice or other direction referred to in subsection (1) of this section is given, a copy of the legal advice or direction shall be forwarded by the Attorney-General or Director of Public Prosecution to the Court before whom the proceeding is pending.

(3) The Attorney-General may request from the Police or any other agency for the case file in any matter and Police or other agency shall immediately send the case file as requested.

Prosecution of offences.

121. (1) In pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution relating to the powers of prosecution by the Attorney-General the prosecution of all offences in any Court shall be undertaken by:

(a) the Attorney-General or a Law Officer in his Ministry or Department;

(b) a legal practitioner authorized by the Attorney-General or any other person;

(c) a legal practitioner authorized to prosecute by this Law or any other law of the State House of Assembly.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the police from prosecuting any offence triable by any Magistrate's Court.

PART 12 :
CONTROL OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS
BY THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

Discontinuance of criminal cases.

122. (1) In any criminal proceeding for an offence created by a law of the State House of Assembly, and at any stage of the proceeding before judgment, the Attorney-General may discontinue the proceedings either by stating in Court or informing the Court in writing that the Attorney-General intends that the proceeding should be discontinued and, the suspect shall immediately be discharged in respect of the charge or information for which the discontinuance is entered.

(2) Where the suspect:

(a) has been committed to prison, he shall be released; or

(b) is on bail, the recognizance shall be discharged.

(3) Where the suspect is not:

(a) before the Court when the discontinuance is entered, the Registrar or other proper officer of the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing of the entry of the discontinuance to be given to the officer in charge of the prison or other place in which the suspect may be detained and the notice shall be sufficient authority to discharge the suspect; or

(b) in custody, the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing to be given to the suspect and his sureties and shall in either case cause a similar notice in writing to be given to any witness bound over to testify.

(4) Where discontinuance is entered accordance with the provisions of this section, the discharge of a suspect shall not operate as a bar to any subsequent proceeding against him on account of the same facts.

*Withdrawals from prosecution in trials and
a court.*

123. (1) In any trial or proceeding before a Court, a Prosecutor may, on the instruction of the Attorney-General in case of offences against a law of the State House of Assembly, at any stage before judgment is pronounced, withdraw the charge against any accused person either generally or in respect of one or more of the offences with which the accused person is charged.

(2) Where the withdrawal is made:

(a) before the accused person is called upon to make his defence, he shall be discharged of the offence; and

(b) after the accused person is called upon to make his defence, he shall be acquitted of the offence.

(3) In any trial before a Court in which the prosecutor withdraws in respect of the prosecution of an offence before the accused person is called upon to make his defence, the court may, in its discretion, order the accused person to be acquitted if it is satisfied, on the merits of the case, that the order is a proper one, and when an order of acquitted is made, the court shall endorse its reasons for making the order on the record.

(4) Where a private Prosecutor withdraws from a prosecution for an offence under the provisions of this section, the Court may, in its discretion, award costs against the prosecutor.

(5) A discharge of a accused person under this section shall not operate as a bar to subsequent proceedings against him on account of the same facts, except as otherwise provided under this section.

PART 13 : INSTITUTION OF PROCEEDINGS

*Different methods of instituting
proceedings.*

124. Subject to the provisions of this law and any other law, criminal proceedings may be instituted:

- (a) in a Magistrate Court or Sharia Court, by a complaint whether or not on oath or upon receiving a First Information Report;
- (b) in the High Court, by a charge filed by or on behalf of the Attorney-General subject to Section 119 of this Law;
- (c) by a charge filed in the Court after the accused person has been summarily committed for perjury by a Court under the provisions of this Law;
- (d) by a charge filed in the Court by any other prosecuting authority; or
- (e) by a charge filed by a private prosecutor subject to the provisions of this Law.
- (f) Upon the receipt of complaint by the Attorney General

Mode of instituting criminal proceedings in a Magistrates' court.

125. (1) Criminal proceedings instituted in a Magistrate Court may be:

- (a) By bringing a suspect arrested without a warrant before the court on a complaint specifying the name, address, age, sex and occupation of the suspect charged, the charge against him and the time and place where the offence is alleged to have been committed; and the charge sheets shall be signed by any of the persons mentioned in section 121 of this Law;

(b) Upon receiving a First Information on the commission of an offence for which the police are authorized to arrest without a warrant and which may be tried by the court within the jurisdiction where the police station is situate; the particulars in the Report shall disclose the offence for which the complaint is brought and shall be signed by the police officer in charge of the case; or

(c) Subject to the provision of section 105 of this Law, by complaint to the Court, whether or not on oath, that an offence has been committed by a suspect whose presence the Magistrate has power to compel, and an application to the Magistrate, in the manner set out in this section for the issue of either a summons directed to, or a warrant to arrest, the suspect.

(2) The charge sheet filed by the prosecution shall be served on the accused person within seven days of its being filed or such time as the court may allow. (3) The trial of a charge preferred under subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section shall commence not later than 30 days from the date of filing the charge, and the trial of the person brought under the charge shall be completed within a reasonable time.

(4) Where a charge is preferred under subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section and the trial does not commence within 30 days of bringing the charge, or trial has commenced but has not been completed after 90 days of remand on that charge, the Court shall forward to the Chief Judge the particulars of the charge and reasons for failure to commence the trial or to complete the trial.

(5) A Court seized of criminal proceedings shall make quarterly returns of the particulars of all cases, including charges, remand and other proceedings commenced and dealt with in his Court within the quarter, to the Chief Judge.

(6) In reviewing the returns made by a Court under subsections (4) and (5) of this section, the Chief Judge shall have regard to the need to ensure that:

- (a) criminal matters are speedily dealt with;
- (b) congestion of cases in courts is drastically reduced;
- (c) congestion of prisons is reduced to the barest minimum;
- (d) persons awaiting trial are, as far as possible, not detained in prison custody for a length of time beyond that prescribed in section 307 of this Law.

(7) The Administration of Criminal Justice Monitoring Committee, shall have power to consider all returns made to the Chief Judge under subsections (4) and (5) of this section for the purpose of ensuring expeditious disposal of cases, and the National Human Rights Commission set up under the National rights Commission Act shall have access to the returns on request to the Chief Judge.

Returns by comptroller of correctional service

126. (1) The Comptroller of Correctional Service shall make returns every 90 days to the Chief Judge and to the Attorney-General of all persons awaiting trial held in custody in the correctional service in the State for a period beyond 90 days from the date of remand.

(2) The returns referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall be in a prescribed form and shall include:

- (a) the name of the suspect held in custody or awaiting Trial Persons;
- (b) passport photograph of the suspect;
- (c) the date of his arraignment or remand;
- (d) the date of his admission to custody;
- (e) the particulars of the offence with which he was charged;
- (f) the courts before which he was remanded ;
- (g) name of the prosecution agency;
- (h) name of the prosecutor; or

(i) any other relevant information.

(3) Upon receipt of such returns, the recipient shall take such steps as are necessary to address the issues raised in the return in furtherance of the purpose of this Law.

PART 14 : FIRST INFORMATION REPORT

*Procedure for receiving complaint and
First Information Report.*

127. (1) Where a complaint is brought before a Police Officer in charge of a police station concerning the commission of an offence and is:

- (a) one for which the police are authorized to arrest without a warrant, and
- (b) triable by a Magistrate Court within which jurisdiction the police station is situated, the police shall, if the complaint is made orally, reduce the complaint or cause it to be reduced into writing in the Police Diary.

(2) The complaint, whether given in writing or orally shall be reduced in writing into the Police Diary and read or cause to be read over to the complaint shall be signed by the officer receiving the complaint.

(3) where on any other ground the officer in charge of a police station, has reason to suspect the commission of an offence referred to in subsection (1), he shall enter or cause to be entered the grounds of his suspicion in a Police Diary.

(4) Where the office is satisfied that no public interest may be served by prosecuting, he may refuse to accept the complaint provided that he notifies the complaint of his right to complaint to a Court under section 124 (a) of this Law.

(5) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (2) of this section, the officer in charge of a police station may, if in his opinion the matter might more conveniently be inquired into by an officer in charge of another police station, refer the complaint to such other police station.

(6) After complying with the provisions of section, the officer in charge of the police station shall act as follows:

(a) he shall forthwith proceed to the scene and investigate the case and if the suspect is not in custody, take such steps as may be necessary for the discovery and arrest of the suspect or he may direct a police officer subordinate to him to do so and report to him;

(b) in cases involving death or serious injury to any person, the officer in charge of the police station or any other person shall arrange, if possible, for the person to be taken to the nearest hospital for such further examination as may be necessary;

(c) where the complaint is given against a person by name and the alleged offence is not of a serious nature, the officer in charge of a police station need not make or direct investigation on the spot;

(d) in the cases mentioned in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the officer in charge of the police station shall record in the book referred to in subsection (2) and in the First Information

Report to the Court his reason for not entering on an investigation or for not making or directing investigation on the spot or not investigating the case;

(e) where after the investigation, it appears that the complaints against the suspect are unfounded, the investigation shall be terminated and this fact shall be recorded in the Police Diary mentioned in subsection (2) of this section; and

(f) where the officer considers that the prosecution of the alleged offence will serve the public interest, the officer shall reduce the complaint into the prescribed form called First Information Report and the officer shall take the alleged suspect with the First Information Report before a Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the police station is situated.

Provided that the said First Information Report has been directed by the Chief Registrar or designated Chief Magistrate or Upper Sharia Court Judge as the case may be.

(7) Where the suspect appears or is brought before the Magistrate Court, the particulars of the offence of which he is accused shall be read to him and he shall be asked if he has any cause to show why he should not be tried by the Magistrate.

(8) Where upon hearing the information, the alleged suspect admits the commission of the offence contained in the First Information Report, his admission shall be recorded as near as possible in the words used by him and if he shows no sufficient cause why he should not be convicted, the Magistrate may convict him accordingly and in that case it shall not be necessary to frame a formal charge.

(a) the accused person for whose appearance it has been entered into or security executed shall be released; and

(b) where he is in prison or police station or other place of detention, the Court admitting him to bail shall immediately issue a written Order of release to the official in charge of the prison or such other place of detention and the official on receipt of the Order shall immediately release him.

(2) The release Order or any process in relation to it may be served in accordance with the relevant Law regulating service of processes in the Court, or by such person or courier company as the Chief Judge may authorize to serve criminal processes of the Court.

(3) Nothing in this section or in any other section relating to bail is deemed to require the release of a accused person liable to be detained for some matter other than in respect of which the recognizance was entered into or to which the bail relates.

Mode of entering into recognizance.

186. Where as a condition for the release of any accused person, he is required to enter into a recognizance with sureties, the recognizance of the sureties may be taken separately and either before or after the cognizance of the principal, and if so taken, the recognizance of the principal and sureties shall be as binding as if they had been taken together and at the same time.

Continuous bail.

187. (1) Where an accused person is released on bail, the recognizance may be conditioned for his appearance at every time and place to which, during the course of the proceedings, the hearing may from time to time be adjourned.

(2) The Court may, where the circumstances appear just:

(a) vary the Order of release on bail of the accused person at any subsequent hearing; and

(b) at any subsequent stage of any proceeding, cause a accused person who has been released on bail to be arrested and be committed to custody:

Provided that the Judge shall state in his records the reason for the variation of the Order or Committal of the accused person.

Defendant bound by recognizance to appear before a court or police may be committed to prison.

188. Where an application is made before the Court by information on oath by a complaint, surety or other person that an accused person bound by recognizance to appear before a Court or police officer:

(a) is about to leave the State; or

(b) for the purpose of evading justice, is about to leave or has left the division or district of the Court before which he is to appear or in which he normally resides, the Court may cause him to be arrested and may commit him to prison until the trial, unless the Court considers it fit to admit him to bail on further recognizance.

Reconsideration of amount of bail on application by Law officer or police.

189. Where a accused person has been admitted to bail and circumstances arise which, if the accused person had not been admitted to bail would, in the opinion of a Law officer or police officer, justify the Court in refusing bail or in requiring bail of greater amount, a Court, may:

(a) on the circumstances being brought to its notice by a Law officer or police issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused person; and

(b) after giving him an opportunity of being heard, commit him to prison to await trial or admit to bail for the same or an increased amount as the Court may deem just.

*Variation of a recognizance if
unsuitable.*

190. Where at any time after a recognizance has been entered into, it appears to the Court that for any reason the surety or sureties are unsuitable, the Court may:

(a) issue a summons or warrant for the appearance of the principal; and

(b) on his coming to the Court, order him to execute a fresh recognizance with other surety or sureties, as the case may be.

*Discharge of

191. (1) All or any of the sureties to a recognizance may at any time apply to the Court which caused the recognizance to be taken to discharge the bond either wholly or so far as relates to the applicant.

(2) On an application under subsection (1) of this section, the Court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused person on whose behalf the recognizance was executed and on his appearance shall discharge the recognizance either wholly or so far as relates to the surety and shall require the accused person to find other sufficient sureties or meet some other conditions and if he fails to do so, may make such order as it considers fit.

Order of fresh security upon original order.

192. Where a surety to a recognizance becomes insolvent or dies or where a recognizance is forfeited, the Court may order the accused person from whom the recognizance was demanded to furnish fresh security in accordance with the directions of the original order and, if the security is not furnished, the Court may proceed as if there had been default in complying with the original order.

Recognizance.*

193. (1) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court by which a recognizance has been taken or, when the recognizance bond is for appearance before a Court and it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that a recognizance has been forfeited, the Court shall record the grounds of proof and may call on any person bound by the bond to pay the penalty thereof or to show why it should not be paid.

(2) Where sufficient cause is not shown and the penalty is not paid, the Court may proceed to recover the penalty from a person bound or from his estate if he is dead, in the manner laid down in this Law for the recovery of fines.

(3) A surety's estate shall only be liable under this section if the surety dies after the recognizance is forfeited.

(4) When the penalty is not paid and cannot be recovered in the manner provided in this Law, the person bound shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(5) The Court may as its discretion remit any portion of the penalty and enforce payment in part only.

Mitigation of forfeiture

194. The Court may at any time cancel or mitigate the forfeiture, on the person liable under the recognizance applying and giving security to the satisfaction of the Court, for the future performance of the condition of the recognizance and paying or giving security for the payment of the costs incurred in respect of the forfeiture or on such other conditions as the Court may consider just.

*Where defendant fails to find
surety*

195. Where a accused person required by a Court to find sufficient sureties fails to do so, the Court, shall unless it is just and proper in the circumstances, make some other order in the case of a accused person:

(a) charged with an offence and released on bail, an order committing him to correctional service until he is brought to trial, discharged or finds sufficient sureties, or meets such other conditions as the Court may direct in the circumstances; or

(b) ordered to give security for good behavior, an order committing him to correctional service for remainder of the period for which he was originally ordered to give security or until he finds sufficient sureties.

Forfeiture on conviction.

196. (1) Where a recognizance to keep the peace and be of good behavior or not to do or commit some act or thing, has been entered into by a accused person as principal or as surety before a Court, a Court, on proof that the person bound by the recognizance as principal has been convicted of an offence which is by Law a breach of the condition of the recognizance, may order that the:

(a) recognizance be forfeited; and

(b) persons bound by it, whether as principal or as sureties or any of those persons, shall pay the sums for which they are respectively bound.

Where recognizance forfeited warrant may be issued.

197. Where a recognizance is ordered to be forfeited, the Court having jurisdiction over the matter, may, immediately or at any time after the order, issue a warrant of committal against a person liable, whether as principal or surety under the recognizance, for any term not exceeding the term prescribed in respect of a like sum in the scale of imprisonment set out in this Law except the amount due under the recognizance is paid.

Arrest on failure to appear.

198. Where an accused person who is bound by a recognizance or bond to appear before a Court or police station does not so appear, the Court may issue a warrant for his arrest.

Payment on Recognizance.

199. All sums paid or recovered in respect of a recognizance order by a Court in pursuance of section 193 of this Law to be forfeited shall be paid to the Treasury and a receipt issued which shall be produced in Court as evidence of payment.

Appeal.

200. An Order of forfeiture made under this Law shall be subject to appeal.

PART 21 : PROPERTY AND PERSONS

*Methods of stating Multiple ownership
Of property.*

201. 203. A woman who has contracted a valid marriage shall have in her own name against all persons, including the husband of the marriage, the same remedies and redress by way of criminal proceeding for the protection and security of her person.

Husband and wife Competent as witnesses.

204. In any proceedings taken under the provision of section 203 of this Law the Husband and his Wife shall be competent and compellable witnesses in accordance with the provisions of the evidence Act, 2011.

PART 22 : THE CHARGE

Forms of charges in second schedule to be used and adopted.

205. A charge may be as in the forms set out in second schedule of this law, with such modification as may be necessary in the circumstances of each case.

Contents of a Charge.

206. (1) A charge shall state the offence with which the accused person is charged.

(2) Where the law creating the offence: -

- a) gives it a specific name, the offence shall be described in the charge by that name only; and
 - b) does not give it a specific name, so much of the definition of the offence shall be stated as to give the accused person notice of the facts of the offence with which he is charged.
- (3) The law, the section of the law and the punishment section of the law against which the offence is said to have been committed, shall be set out in the charge.

Legal presumption of Charge.

207. The fact that a charge is made is equivalent to a statement that every legal condition required by law to constitute the offence charged was fulfilled in the particular case.

Particulars in Charge.

208. (1) The charge shall contain such particulars as to the time and place of the alleged offence and the victim, if any, against whom or the thing, if any, in respect of which it was committed as are reasonably sufficient to give the accused person notice of the offence with which he is charged.

(2) A charge sheet may be filed with the photograph of the accused person print, provided that where the photograph is not available, it shall not invalidate the charge.

Proof of evidence, etc.

209. (1) A charge shall be filed in the registry of the High Court before which the prosecution seeks to prosecute the offence, and shall include:

- a) the proof of evidence, consisting of:
 - i. the list of witnesses,
 - ii. the list of exhibits to be tendered,
 - iii. summary of statements of the witnesses,
 - iv. copies of statement of the accused person,
 - v. any other document, report, or material that the prosecution intends to use in

- support of its case at the trial where available,
- vi. particulars of bail or any recognizance, bond or cash or cash deposit, if the accused person is on bail where available,
- vii. particulars of place of custody, where the accused person is in custody where available,
- viii. particulars of any plea bargain arranged with the accused person if any,
- ix. particulars of any previous interlocutory proceedings, including remand proceedings, in respect of the charge, and
- x. any other relevant document as may be directed by the court.

(2) The prosecution may, at any time before judgment, file and serve notice of additional evidence.

(3) The charge and all accompanying processes shall be served on the accused person or his legal representative, if any.

Charge of criminal Breach of trust.

210. Where an accused person is charged with criminal breach of trust or fraudulent appropriation of property, it is sufficient to specify the gross sum in respect of which the defence is alleged to have been committed and the dates between which the offence is alleged to have been committed without specifying particular items or exact dates, and the charge so framed shall be deemed to be a charge of a single offence.

Charge of criminal Falsification of account.

211. When a accused person is charged with falsification of accounts, fraudulent falsification of accounts or fraudulent conversion, it shall be sufficient to allege a general intent to defraud without naming any particular person intended to be defrauded or specifying any particular sum of money intended to be the subject of the fraud or any particular day on which the offence was committed.

Charge may contain the manner in which the offence was committed.

212. Where the nature of the offence is such that the particulars required by section 208 of this law do not give the accused person sufficient notice of the matter with which he is charged, the charge shall also contain such particulars of the manner in which the offence was committed as will be sufficient for that purpose.

Sense of words used in the Charge.

213. (1) In a charge, words used in describing an offence are deemed to have been used in the sense attached to them, respectively, in the law creating the offence.

(2) Figures, expressions and abbreviation may be used or expressing anything which is commonly expressed by those figures, expression or abbreviation.

Description of Property and Joint owners.

214. (1) The description of property in a charge shall be in ordinary language indicating with reasonable clarity the property referred to and where the property is so described it is not necessary, except when required for the purpose of describing an offence depending on any special ownership of property or special value of property, to name the person to whom the property belongs or the value of the property.

(2) Where property is vested in more than one persons and the owners of that property are referred to in the charge, the property may be described as being owned in accordance with the appropriate provision set out in section 201 of this law.

(3) Where the owner of any property is a company, association, club or society, proof of the registration of the company, association, club or society shall not be required unless the court decides that proof shall be given, in which case, the further hearing may be adjourned for that purpose or the court may, in its discretion, amend the proceedings by substituting the name of some person or persons for the registered title.

Description of bank or currency notes.

215. (1) Any bank note or currency note may be described as money, and any averment as to money, regarding the description of the property, shall be sustained by proof of any amount of any bank or currency note, although the particular species of currency of which the amount was composed or the particular nature of the bank or currency note need not be proved.

(2) In a case of theft and receiving by false pretences, the bank note or currency note may be described by proof that the accused person dishonestly appropriate or obtained any bank or currency note, or any portion of its value, although the bank or currency note may have been delivered to him in order that some part of its value should be returned to the party delivering it or to any other person, and that part should have been returned accordingly.

216. (1) Where a law consisting of an offence states the offence to be omission to do any one of different acts in the alternative, or the doing or the omission to do any act in any one of the different capacities, or with any one of the different intentions, or states any part of the offence in the alternative, the act, omission, capacity, or intention, or other matter stated in the alternative in the law, may be stated in the alternative in the charge.

(2) It shall not be necessary in any charge where the offence is one constituted by a law to negate any exception or exemption from or qualification to the operation of the law creating the offence.

Description of persons and document.

217. (1) The description or designation of the accused person in a charge or of any other person to whom reference is made therein may be in the manner set out in section 205 of this law.

(2) Where it is necessary to refer to a document or an instrument in a charge, it is sufficient to describe it by any name or designation by which it is commonly known, or by the purport of the document without setting out the content.

General rule as to description.

218. Subject to any other provision of this law, it is sufficient to describe any place, time, thing, manner, act, or omission to which it is necessary to refer in a charge in ordinary language in such a manner as to indicate with reasonable clarity the place, time, thing, matter, act or omission referred to.

Statement of intent.

219. It is not necessary in stating an intent to defraud, deceive or injure any particular person, where the law creating the offence does not make an intent to defraud, deceive or injure a particular person an essential ingredient of the offence.

Defendants who may be charged jointly.

220. The following accused persons may be charged and tried together for:

- a) the same offence committed in the course of the same transaction;
- b) an offence and another of abetting or being accessory to or attempting to commit the same offence;
- c) more than one offence of the same or similar character, committed by them jointly;
- d) different offences committed in the course of same transaction;
- e) offences which include theft, extortion or criminal misappropriation and another accused of receiving or retaining or assisting in the disposal or concealment of property, the possession of which has been transferred by offences committed by the first named persons, or of abetment of or attempting to commit any of the last named offences; and

- f) dishonestly receiving stolen property or assisting in concealment of stolen property, or in respect of stolen property the possession of which has been transferred by one offence, and another accused of offences committed during a fight or series of fights arising out of another fight, and persons accused of abetting any of these offences.

Separate charges for distinct offences.

221. For every distinct offence with which an accused person is accused, there shall be a separate charge and every an charge shall be tried separately except in the following circumstances:

- a) Any three offences committed by accused person within 12 months whether or not they are of the same or similar character or whether or not they are in respect of the same person or persons;
- b) Any number of the same types of offence committed by an accused person;
- c) Any number of offence committed by a accused person in the course of the same transaction having regard to the proximity of the time and place, continuing of action and community of purpose; or
- d) Cases mentioned in section 225 to 230 of this law.

Attempt same as substantive offences.

222. An offence is deemed to be an offence of the same kind as an attempt to commit that offence where the attempt is itself an offence.

Trial for more than one offence.

223. Where in one series of acts or omissions so connected t together as to form the same transaction or which form or are of a series of offences of the same or a character, more offences than one are committed by the same accused person, charges for the offences may be joined and the accused person accused tried for the offences at one trial.

Offences failing within two definitions.

224. Where the acts or omissions alleged constitute an offence falling within two or more separate definitions in any law for the time being in force under which offences are defined or punished, the accused person accused of them may be charged with and tried at one trial for each of those offences.

Acts constituting one offence but constituting a different offence when combined.

225. Where several acts or omissions, of which one or more than one would by itself or themselves constitute an offence, constituted when combined with a different offence, the accused person accused of them may be charged with and tried at one trial for the offence constituted by those acts or omissions when combined or for any offence constituted by any one or more of those acts.

Where it is doubtful which offence has been committed.

226. Where a single acts or omission or series of acts or omissions is of such a nature that it is doubtful which of several offences, the facts of which can be proved, will constitute the offence with which the accused person may be charged with having committed all or any of those offences and any number of those charges may be tried at once or he may be charged in the alternative with having committed any of those offences.

Incidental offences in the same transaction.

227. Where a single act or omission the fact or combination of those facts constitutes more than one offence, the accused person may be charged and tried at one trial for one or more of those offences.

PART 23 : ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT OF CHARGES

Alteration and amendment of charge by permission of court.

228. (1) Where an Accused person is arraigned on an imperfect charge, a Court shall permit an alteration or amendment to the charge or framing of a new charge at any time before judgment is pronounced.

(2) The Court may appropriate cases frame a charge or add or alter the charge as the case may be having regard to the provisions of this Law.

(3) An alteration or amendment of a new charge shall be read and explained to the accused person and his plea to the amended or new charge shall be taken.

Procedure on alteration of charge.

229. (1) Where a new charge is framed or alteration made to a charge under the provisions of section 228 of this Law, the Court shall call on the accused person to plead to the new or altered charge as if he has been arraigned for the first time.

(2) The Court shall proceed with the trial as if the new or altered charge had been the original charge.

When court may proceed with trial immediately after altering, adding to or framing charge.

230. (1) Where the charge as revised under section 228 or 229 of this Law is such that proceeding immediately with the trial is not likely in the opinion of the court, to prejudice the accused person in his defense or the prosecutor, as the case may be, in the conduct of the case, the court may in its discretion forthwith proceed with the trial as if the charge so revised had been the original charge

(2) Where a charge is so amended, a note of the order for amendment shall be endorsed on the charge, and the charge shall be treated, for the purpose of all proceedings in connection therewith, as having been filed in the amended form.

*Recall of witnesses
revised.*

231. Where a charge is altered, amended or substituted after the commencement of the trial, the prosecutor and the accused person shall be allowed to recall or re-summon and examine any witness who may have been examined and so call any further witness, provided that such examination shall be limited to the alteration, amendment or substitution made.

Effect of error.

232. An error in stating the offence or the particulars required to be stated in a charge or an omission to state the offence or those particulars, or any duplicity, mis-joinder or non-joinder of the particulars of the offence shall not be regarded at any stage of the case as material unless the accused person was in fact misled by the error or omission.

Objection to a charge.

233. Objections shall not be taken or entertained during proceeding or trial on the ground of an imperfect or erroneous charge.

Effect of material error.

234. (1) Where an appellate Court is of the opinion that a accused person convicted of an offence was misled in his defense by an error in the charge, which has occasioned a miscarriage of justice, it may direct that the trial be recommenced on another charge.

(2) Where the appellate Court is of the opinion that the facts of the case are such that no valid charge could have been preferred against the accused person in respect of the facts proved, it shall quash the conviction.

PART 24 :

CONVICTION WHEN CHARGED WITH ONE OF SEVERAL OFFENCES OR OF ANOTHER OFFENCE

Where defendant charged with one offence may be convicted of another.

235. (1) Where a accused person is charged with one offence and it appears in evidence that he committed a similar offence with which he might have been charge under the provisions of this Law, he may be convicted of the offence, which he is shown to have committed although he was not charged with it.

(2) Before convicting the accused person in the circumstances of subsection (1) of this Law, the court shall be satisfied that the accused person has sufficient notice of the offence disclosed and was not misled in his defence; otherwise it will frame a new charge based on the evidence disclosed at the trial and order the accused to plead to the new charge after it has been read and explained to him.

Full offence charged, attempt proved.

236. Where an accused person is charged with an offence but the evidence establishes an attempt to commit the offence, he may be convicted of having attempted to commit that offence although the attempt is not separately charged.

Attempt charged- full offence proved.

237. Where an accused person is charged with an attempt to commit an offence but the evidence establishes the commission of the full offence he shall not be entitled to an acquittal but he may be convicted of the offence and punished accordingly.

Liability as to further Prosecution.

238. Where an accused person has been convicted of an attempt under either section 236 or 237 of this Law, he shall not subsequently be liable to be prosecuted for the offence for which he was convicted of attempting to commit.

On charge of an offence conviction as accessory after the fact to that or connected offence may follow.

239. Where an accused person is charged with an offence and the evidence and the evidence establishes that he is an accessory after the fact to that offence or to some other offence of which an accused person charged with the first-mentioned offence may be convicted by virtue of any of the provisions of this Law, he may be convicted as an accessory after the fact offence or that other offence, as the case may be and be punished accordingly.

Defendant tried for less offence but higher offence is proved.

240. (1) Where on the trial of a accused person for a lesser offence it appears that the facts proved in evidence amount in law to a higher offence not charged, the accused person shall not by this reason be acquitted of the lesser offence.

(2) The accused person referred to in subsection (1) of this section is not liable afterwards to be prosecuted for the higher offence proved, but the Court may in its discretion stop the trial of the lesser offence or direct that the accused person be charged and tried for the higher offence, in which case, the accused person may be dealt with in all respects as if he had not been put to trial for the lesser offence.

(3) Where a charge is brought for the higher offence pursuant to this section, the accused person shall be tried before another Court.

*Conviction of kindred
property.*

241. Where a accused person is charged with an offence relating to property and the evidence establishes the commission by him with respect to the same property of another offence, he may be convicted of that other offence although he was not charged with it.

*Defendant charged With burglary may
kindred offence.*

242. Where on trial for burglary, housebreaking or related offence, the facts proved in evidence justify a conviction for some other offences and not the offence with which the accused person is charged, the accused person may be convicted of the other offence and be punished as if he had been convicted on a charge with the offence.

*On charge of Rape, Defilement, Incest, Unnatural offence conviction for Indecent assault
may follow.*

243. Where on a trial for rape, defilement, incest, unnatural or indecent offences against a person, the facts proved in evidence can ground conviction for an indecent assault and not the offence with which the accused person is charged, he may be convicted of the offence of indecent assault and be punished as if he had been convicted on a charge with the offence of indecent assault.

Procedure for trial on charge for certain offences.

244. (1) A trial for the offences referred to in subsection (4) of this section may not, where the Court so determines, be held in an open Court.

(2) The names, addresses, telephone numbers and identity of the victims of such offences or witnesses shall not be disclosed in any record or report of the proceedings and it shall be sufficient to designate the names of the victims or witnesses with a combination of alphabets.

(3) Where in any proceeding the Court deems it necessary to protect the identity of the victim or a witness, the court may take any or all of the following measures:

- a) receive evidence by video link or other electronic means;
 - b) permit the witness to be screened or masked;
 - c) receive written deposition of expert evidence; and
 - d) any other measure that the court considers appropriate in the circumstance.
- (4) The provision of this section shall apply to:
- a) offences mentioned under section 246 of this Law;
 - b) offences of Armed Robbery, Kidnapping, abduction and other involving the use of or threat of violence;
 - c) offences under the Terrorism (Prevention) (Amendment) Act;
 - d) offences relating to Economic and Financial Crimes;
 - e) trafficking in Persons and related offences; and
 - f) any other offence in respect of which a law of the State House of Assembly permits the use of such protective measures or as the Judge may consider appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) Any contravention of the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall be an offence and liable on conviction to a minimum term of one year imprisonment.

Where homicide or death of an unborn child is charged and concealment of birth is proved.

245. Where an accused person is charged and tried for homicide of a child or causing the death of an unborn child and it appears on the evidence that the accused person was not guilty of homicide of a child or causing the death of an unborn child, as the case may be, but was guilty of the offence of concealment of birth, the accused person may be convicted of that offence.

Where homicide is charged and death of an unborn child is proved.

246. (1) Where an accused person is charged and tried for homicide of a newly-born child and it appears on the evidence that the accused person was not guilty of homicide but was guilty of causing the death of an unborn child, the accused person may be convicted of that offence.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section presents an accused person who is tried for the homicide of a newly-born child from being:

- a) convicted of homicide not punishable with death;
- b) found guilty of concealment of birth; or
- c) acquitted on the ground that by virtue of an applicable law he was not criminally responsible and dealt with accordingly or in accordance with this Law or any other law.

Where offence proved is not included in offence charged.

247. (1) Where an accused person is charged with an offence consisting of several particulars, a combination of some of which constitutes a lesser offence in itself and the combination is proved but the remaining particulars are not proved, he may be convicted of, or plead guilty to the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.

(2) Where an accused person is charged with an offence and facts are proved which reduce it to a lesser offence, he may be convicted of the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.

Withdrawal of remaining charges on conviction on one of several charges.

248. Where more than one charge is made against an accused person and a conviction has been had on one or more of them, the prosecutor may, with the consent of the Court, withdraw the remaining charge or charges or the Court, of its own motion, may stay the trial of the charge or charges.

(2) A withdrawal has the effect of an acquittal on the charge or charges unless the conviction which has been had is set aside, in which case, subject to any order of the Court setting aside such conviction, the Court before which the withdrawal was made may, on the request of the prosecutor, proceed on the charge or the charges withdrawn.

PART 25 :

PREVIOUS CONVICTIONS OR ACQUITTALS

Defendant convicted or acquitted not to be tried again for same or kindred offence.

249. (1) Without prejudice to section 241 of this Law, an accused person charged with an offence is not liable to be tried for that offence where it is shown that he has previously been:

- a) convicted or acquitted of the same offence by a competent Court;
- b) convicted or acquitted by a competent Court on a charge on which he might have been convicted of the offence charged; or
- c) convicted for or acquitted of an offence by a competent court other than the offence charged, being an offence for which, apart from this section, he might be convicted by virtue of being charged with the offence charged.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall prejudice the operation of a law giving power to a Court, on an appeal, to set aside a verdict or finding of another Court and order a re-trial.

A defendant may be tried again on separate charge in certain cases.

250. An accused person acquitted or convicted of an offence may afterwards be tried for a distinct offence for which a separate charge might have been made against him on the previous trial under the provisions of section 226 of this Law.

Consequences supervening or not known at previous trial.

251. A accused person acquitted or convicted of an offence constituted by an act or omission causing consequences which together with that act or omission constitute a different offence from that for which he was acquitted or convicted, may afterwards be tried for the last-mentioned offence if the consequences had not happened or were not known to the Court to have happened at the time when he was acquitted or convicted when the consequences create the offence of homicide or homicide not punishable with death.

PART 26 :
WITNESSES: COMPELLING ATTENDANCE AND TAKING OF OATH OR MAKING OF AFFIRMATION

*Issue of summons
for witness.*

252. The Court may, on an application of the prosecution or the defence, issue a summon or writ of subpoena on a witness requiring him to attend Court to give evidence in respect of the case, and to bring with him any specified documents or things and any other document or thing relating to them which may be in his possession or power or under his control.

Service of summons and other processes on witnesses.

253. (1) A Court with criminal jurisdiction shall have a process server specifically assigned to it.
(2) The process server has the responsibility to effect efficient service of witness summons, accused person's production orders, writs and all other processes issued in the Court in respect of all criminal matters.
(3) A summons shall be served on the person to whom it is directed in the same manner as it set out in section 137 or 138 of this Law or, with leave of the Court.
(4) Section 140 and section 143 to 146 of this Law shall apply to the summons.
(5) Service of processes may be effected by registered reputable courier companies, recognized and authorized by the Chief Judge in accordance with the provisions of this Law, and such registered courier companies may be assigned to the courts with criminal jurisdiction as process servers in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

(6) The Attorney-General or a person so authorized by him or the police, may serve on a person whom the prosecutor wishes to call as witness, a witness summons or writ of subpoena.

(7) Proof of service of a process or document shall be endorsed by the recipient and the process server shall file the endorsed copy together with an affidavit of service.

Warrant for witness after summons.

254. Where a witness summoned to give evidence does not:

- a) attend Court at the time and place indicated on the summons, and
- b) provide any reasonable excuse for his non-attendance, then after proof that the summons was duly served on him, or that the person to be served willfully avoids service, the court may issue a warrant to arrest and bring him before the court.

*Issue of warrant
for witness.*

255. Where the Court is satisfied in the first instance, by proof on oath, that a person likely to give material evidence, either for the prosecution or for the defence, will not attend to give evidence without being compelled to do so, then, instead of issuing a summons, it may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person.

Mode of dealing with witness arrested under warrant.

256. (1) A witness arrested under a warrant shall, if practicable and where the hearing of the case for which his evidence is required is fixed for a time which is more than 24 hours after the arrest, be taken before a Magistrate and the Magistrate:

- a) may, on the witness furnishing security by recognizance to the satisfaction of the Magistrate for his appearance at the hearing, order him to be released from custody; or
- b) shall, on the witness failing to furnish the security, order him to be detained for production at the hearing.

(2) The provisions of this Law relating to bail, summons and warrants in respect of the accused person shall apply to witnesses.

(3) A witness arrested or detained under this section shall not be kept in the same room or place as the accused person, if the accused person is in custody and the accused person shall not be allowed to make any contact with the witness.

Penalty on witnesses refusing to attend.

257. (1) A witness who:

- a) refuses or neglects, without reasonable cause, to attend court in compliance with the requirements of a summons duly served in the manner prescribed by law; or
- b) departs from the premises of the Court without the leave of the Judge or Magistrate hearing the case; is liable on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding Ten Thousand Naira ₦10,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

(2) A complaint shall not be made for an offence under this section except by the order of the court made during the hearing of the case of which the evidence of the witness is required.

Non-attendance of witness on adjourned hearing.

258. A witness who is present when the hearing or further hearing a case is adjourned, or who has been duly notified of the time and place to which the hearing or further hearing is so adjourned, shall attend any subsequent hearing and if he defaults, he may be dealt with in the same manner as if he had refused or neglected to attend the court in obedience to a witness summons.

Persons in court may be required to give evidence though not summoned.

259. A person present in court and compellable as a witness, whether a party or not in a cause, may be compelled by a court to give evidence, and produce any document in his possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce the document and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the court.

Manner of taking oath or affirmation.

260. A witness shall take an oath or make a solemn affirmation in such a manner as the court considers binding on his conscience.

Witness refusing to be sworn, or produce documents.

261. (1) Where a person attending court and who is required to give evidence, without any sufficient excuse or reason: -

- a) refuses to be sworn or to affirm as a witness;
- b) having been sworn or having taken affirmation refuses to answer any question put to him; or
- c) refuses or neglects to produce any document or anything which he is required by the court to produce, the court may adjourn the hearing of the case and may in the meantime, by warrant, commit the person to prison or other place of safe custody for a period not exceeding 7 days.

(2) Nothing in this section shall: -

- a) affect the liability of the person to any other punishment for refusing or neglecting to do what is so required of him; or
- b) prevent the court from disposing of the case in the meantime according to any other sufficient evidence taken by it.

witnesses for the Prosecution.*

262. Where a person attends a court as a state witness, the witness shall be entitled to payment of such reasonable expenses as may be prescribed.

witnesses for Defence.*

263. Where a person attends court as a witness to give evidence for the defence, the court may in its discretion on application, order payment by the Registrar to such witness of court such sums of money, as it may deem reasonable and sufficient to compensate the witness for the expenses he reasonably incurred in attending the court.

Adjournment may be granted subject to witnesses costs.

264. The court may permit on application of a party, for an adjournment of the proceedings and in so doing, may order the party seeking the adjournment to pay to a witness present in court and whose evidence it has not been possible to take owing to the adjournment, such sum in the amount payable to a witness in accordance with section 262 and 263 of this Law, or such sum as the court may fix.

Ascertainment of witnesses expenses.

265. The amount of the expenses payable to a witness pursuant to sections 262 and 263 of this Law shall be processed and paid by the Registrar of the Court to the witness out of the relevant vote as appropriated by the Judiciary.

PART 27 : EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

Application of the Evidence Act.

266. Subject to the provisions of any other law, the examination of witnesses shall be in accordance with the provision of the Evidence Act.

Power to call or recall witnesses.

267. The court may, at any stage of the trial, inquiry or other proceedings under this law, either of its own motion or on application of either party to the proceedings, call a person as a witness or recall and re-examine a person already examined where his evidence appears to the court to be essential to the just determination of the case.

Certificates of certain Government technical officers.

268. A certificate signed by any of the officers named in section 55 of the Evidence Act, shall be admissible in evidence in accordance with the provisions of that law.

Right of reply.

269. In a case where the right of reply depends on the question whether evidence has been called for the defence, the fact that the Accused person charged has been called as a witness shall not of itself confer on the prosecution the right of reply, but a law officer for the prosecution shall in all cases have the right of reply.

Public to have access to hearing.

270. (1) Subject to the provisions of sections 247 and 273 to 371 of this law, and of any other law specifically relating thereto, the room or place in which a trial is to take place under this law shall be an open court to which the public generally may have access as far as it can conveniently contain them.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Judge or Magistrate presiding over a trial may, in his discretion and subject to the provisions of section 272 of this law, exclude the public at any stage of the hearing on the grounds of public policy, decency or expediency.

(3) Where the court is sitting in a place other than in a building, the authority given in subsection (2) of this section to exclude the public shall be construed as being authority to prevent the public approaching so near to where the court is sitting, as in the opinion of the Judge or Magistrate, to be able to hear what is taking place at the trial or be able to communicate with a person allowed to be present.

Court may exclude certain person while taking evidence of a child or young person.

271. Where a person who, in the opinion of the court has not attained the age of 18 is called as witness in any proceeding in relation to an offence against or any conduct contrary to decency or morality, the court may direct that all or any person not being:

- a) members or officers of the court; or
- b) parties to the case, their legal representatives or persons otherwise directly concerned in the case;

be excluded from the court during the taking of the evidence of such person.

Order under section 271 or 273 not apply to press and certain others.

272. (1) An order made under section 271 or 273 of this law excluding the public from a court shall not unless specifically stated:

- a) authorize the exclusion of bona fide representatives of a newspaper or news agency; or
- b) apply to messengers, clerks and other persons required to attend the court for purposes connected with their employment.

(2) Where an order is made, the court shall record the grounds on which the order is made.

Prohibition on children being present in court during the trial of other persons.

273. An infant, other than an infant in the arms of parent or guardian, or child shall not be permitted to be present in court during the trial of a Accused person charged with an offence or during any proceeding preliminary to the trial except:

- a) he is the Accused person charged with the alleged offence; or
- b) his presence is required as a witness or otherwise for the purposes of justice in which event he may remain for so long as his presence is necessary.

Visit to locus.

274. (1) Where it appears to the court that in the interest of justice, the court should have a view of any place, person or thing connected with the case, the court may, where the view relates to a place, either adjourn the court to that place and there continue the proceedings or adjourn the case and proceed to view the place, person or thing concerned.

(2) The Accused person shall be present at the viewing of the place, person or thing concerned.

(3) At the locus, the court shall give directions as it may deem fit for the purpose of preventing communication between the witnesses and the Accused person.

(4) A breach of a direction given under subsection (1) of this section, shall not affect the validity of the proceedings unless the court otherwise directs.

Determination of age.

275. (1) Where the age of a person is in issue in any criminal proceedings, the court may determine the question by taking into account one or both of the following:

- a) the apparent physical appearance of the person concerned;
- b) any evidence in relation to the age of the person concerned, received by the court in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act, the Children and Young Persons Law, or any other law in force.

(2) The evidence of a witness, who is not an expert within the meaning of section 68 of the Evidence Act, 2011, shall be admissible for the purpose of this section.

(3) An order or judgment of the court shall not be invalidated by any subsequent proof that the age of the person has not been correctly stated to the court, and the age presumed or declared by the court to be the age of that person shall, for the purpose of this law, be deemed to be the true age of that person.

Age in relation to offences.

276. Where in a charge for an offence, it is alleged that the person by or in respect of whom the offence was committed, was a child under or above a specified age, and he appears to the court to have been at the date of the commission of the alleged offence a child under or above the specified age, as the case may be, he shall, for the purposes of this law, be presumed at that date to have been a child or to have been under or above that age, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved.

Presence of defendant at trial.

277. A Accused person shall, subject to the provisions of section 149 of this law, be present in court during the whole of his trial unless:

- a) he misconducts himself in such a manner as to render his continuing presence impracticable or undesirable; or
- b) at the hearing of an interlocutory application.

Conduct of cases by Legal Practitioner for complainant or for defendant.

278.(1) The complainant and Accused person shall be entitled to conduct their cases by a legal practitioner or in person except in a trial for a capital offence punishable with death.

(2) where the accused person is in custody or on remand, he shall be allowed access to his legal practitioner at all times.

(3) Where the accused person elects to defend himself in person, the court shall inform him of his rights within the trial and the consequences of his election.

(4) The court shall ensure that the accused person is represented by a counsel in capital offences provided that an accused person who refuses to be represented by counsel shall, after being informed of the risks of defending himself in person, be deemed to have elected to defend himself in person and this shall not be a ground to void the trial.

General control of prosecution by the Attorney-General.

279.(1) Where a private legal practitioner prosecutes on behalf of the Attorney-General or a public officer prosecuting in his official capacity in any criminal proceeding, the private legal practitioner or public officer shall prosecute subject to such directions as may be given by the Attorney-General.

(2) Where proceedings in respect of an offence are instituted by a police officer, it shall be in the name of the Commissioner of Police.

(3) Where a proceeding in respect of an offence is instituted on behalf of the Attorney-General, it shall be in the name of the people of Kebbi State.

(4) The Attorney-General of the Federation may delegate to the Attorney-General of the State powers conferred on him by this section either generally or with respect to any offence or class of offences and such offence shall be prosecuted in the name of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

(5) Such powers so delegated to the Attorney-General of a State may be exercised directly by him or any officer in his Ministry or department.

(6) Where proceedings in respect of an offence are instituted by an agency authorized by law to prosecute, it shall do so in its name.

Position in court of person summoned.

280. Where a accused person appeared before a court on a summons, he shall be required to enter the dock, to stand or sit in it, except where circumstances do not permit, as may be directed by the Court

PART 28 : PLEA BARGAIN AND PLEA GENERALLY

Plea bargain guidelines.

281. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Law or in any other law, the Prosecutor may:

a) receive and consider a plea bargain from a accused person charged with an offence either directly from the accused person or on his behalf; or

b) offer a plea bargain to a accused person charged with an offence.

(2) The prosecution may enter into plea Bargaining with the accused person during or after the presentation of the evidence of the prosecution, but before the presentation of the evidence of the defense, provided that in any offence affecting the human body, the consent of the victim must first be sought and obtained before entering into a plea bargain.

(3) Where the prosecutor is of the view that the offer or acceptance of a plea bargain is in the interest of justice, the public interest, public policy and the need to prevent abuse of legal process, he may offer or accept the plea bargain.

(4) The prosecutor and the accused person or his legal practitioner may, before the plea to the charge, enter into an agreement in respect of:

- a) the terms of the plea bargain which may include the sentence recommended within the appropriate range of punishment stipulated for the offence or a guilty by the accused person to the offence charged or a lesser offence of which he may be convicted on the charge; and
- b) an appropriate sentence to be imposed by the court where the accused person is convicted of the offence to which he intends to plead guilty.

(5) The prosecutor may only enter into an agreement contemplated in subsection (4) of this section:

- a) after consultation with the police responsible for the investigation of the case and the victim or his representative; and
- b) with due regard to the nature of and circumstances relating to the offence, the accused person and public interest;

Provided that in determining whether it is in the public interest to enter into a plea bargain, the prosecution shall weigh all relevant factors, including:

- i. The accused person's willingness to cooperate in the investigation or prosecution of others by providing relevant information for the prosecution of other accused persons,
- ii. The accused person's history with respect to criminal activity,
- iii. The accused person's remorse or contrition and his willingness to assume responsibility for his conduct;
- iv. The desirability of prompt and certain disposition of the case;

- v. The likelihood of obtaining a conviction at trial and the probable effect on witnesses;
- vi. The probable sentence or other consequences if the accused person is convicted;
- vii. The need to avoid delay in the disposition of other pending cases;
- viii. The expense of trial and appeal, and
- ix. The accused person's willingness to make restitution or return the proceeds of the crime or pay compensation to the victim where appropriate.

6) The prosecution shall afford the victim or his representative the opportunity to make representations to the prosecutor regarding:

- a) the content of the agreement; and
- b) the inclusion in the agreement of a compensation or restitution order.

7) An agreement between the parties contemplated in subsection (4) of this section shall be reduced to writing and shall:

- a) state that, before conclusion of the agreement, the accused person has been informed:
 - i. That he has a right to remain silent;
 - ii. Of the consequences of not remaining silent, and
 - iii. That he is not obliged to make any confession or admission that could be used in evidence against him;
- b) state fully, the terms of the agreement and any admission made;
- c) be signed by the prosecutor, the accused person, the legal practitioner and the interpreter, as the case may be; and
- d) a copy of the agreement forwarded to the Attorney-General.

(8) The presiding judge or magistrate before whom the criminal proceedings are pending shall not participate in the discussion contemplated in subsection (4) of this section.

(9) Where a plea agreement is reached by the prosecution and the defense, the prosecutor shall inform the court that the parties have reached an agreement and the presiding judge or magistrate shall then inquire from the accused person to confirm the terms of the agreement.

(10) The presiding Judge of Magistrate shall make an order that any money, asset or property agreed to be forfeited under the plea bargain shall be transferred to and vest in the victim or his representative or any other person as may be appropriate or reasonably feasible.

(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Sheriffs and Civil Process Law, the prosecutor shall take reasonable steps to ensure that any money, asset or property agreed to be forfeited or returned by the offender under a plea bargain are transferred to or vested in the victim, his representative or other person lawfully entitled to it.

(12) Any person who, willfully and without just cause, obstructs or impedes the vesting or transfer of any money, asset or property under this Law, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for 5 years without an option of fine.

(13) Where the accused person has been informed of the heavier sentence, the accused person may:

- a) abide by his plea of guilty as agreed upon and agree that, subject to the accused person's right to lead evidence and to present argument relevant to sentencing, the presiding judge or magistrate proceed with the sentence; or
- b) withdraw from his plea agreement, in which event the trial shall proceed de novo before another presiding judge or magistrate, as the case may be.

(14) Where a trial proceeds as contemplated under subsection (13)

- a) no references shall be made to the agreement;
- b) no admission contained therein or statements relating thereto shall be admissible against the accused person; and
- c) the prosecutor and the accused person shall not enter into a similar plea and sentence agreement.

(15) Without prejudice to the foregoing subsections, the provision of this section shall not apply to offences relating to culpable homicide punishable with death, rape and other sexual offences, terrorism, unnatural offences, acts of Gross Indecency, thuggery, Qazf, robbery, theft, drinking alcohol and related offences.

Plea to a charge.

282. (1) Before a accused person takes his plea, the court shall inform him of his rights under the provisions of Plea to a charge under section 284 of this Law.

(2) The accused person to be tried on a charge shall be:

- a) brought before the court unfettered unless the Court sees cause otherwise to order and the charge shall be read over explained to the satisfaction of the Court by the registrar or officer of the Court; and
- b) called upon to plead instantly unless, where the person is entitled to service of the charge, he objects to the non-service and where the court finds that he has not been duly served.

(3) The court shall record the fact that it is satisfied that the accused person understands the charge read and explained to him in the language he understands, and shall record the plea of the accused person to the charge as nearly as possible in the words used by him.

Proof of previous conviction.

283. Where the fact of a previous conviction of a accused person is a fact in issue, the prosecution shall prove the same in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act.

Effect of plea of not guilty.

284. An accused person who pleads not guilty shall be deemed to have put himself to trial.

Effect of plea of guilty.

285. (1) Where an accused person pleads guilty to an offence with which he is charged, the court shall:

- a) record his plea as nearly as possible;
- b) invite the prosecution to state the facts of the case; and
- c) enquire from the accused person whether his plea of guilty is to the fact as stated by the prosecution;

(2) Where the court is satisfied that the accused person intends to admit the truth of all the essential elements of the offence for which he has pleaded guilty, the court shall convict and sentence him or make such order as may be necessary, unless there shall appear sufficient reason to the contrary.

(3) Where the accused person pleads guilty to a capital offence, a plea of not guilty shall be recorded for him.

Amending charge where defendant pleads guilty to offence not charged.

286. Without prejudice to other provisions of this Law, where the accused person pleads guilty to an offence not contained in the charge on which he was arraigned, the court shall direct the prosecution to amend the charge accordingly to include the admitted, in which case, a fresh plea of the accused person shall be taken on the amended charge.

Failure to plead due to malice or otherwise.

287. (1) Where the accused person, when called upon to plead remains silent or refuses to answer, the court shall enter a plea of not guilty on his behalf.

(2) A plea entered under subsection (1) of this section shall have the same effect as if the accused person actually pleaded to the charge.

(3) The court may inquire into the mental state of the accused person, and if the court is satisfied that the accused person is of sound mind, the court shall proceed with his trial.

(4) Where the court finds that the accused person is of unsound mind, the provisions of this Law in relation to persons of unsound mind shall apply.

Pleas autrefois acquitt or convict, pardon.

288. (1) An accused person against whom a charge or information is filed may plead that:

a) by virtue of section 249 of this Law he is not liable to be tried for the offence with which he is charged; or

b) he has obtained a pardon for his offence.

(2) Where either of the pleas under subsection (1) of this section is raised in any case and denied to be true in fact, the court shall determine whether such plea is true in fact or not.

(3) Where the court holds that the facts alleged by the accused person do not prove the plea, or if it finds that it is false in fact, the accused person shall be required to the charge.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent a accused person from pleading that, by virtue of some other provision of law, he is not liable to be prosecuted or tried for an offence with which he is charged.

PART 29 : PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND

Procedure when defendant is suspected to be of unsound mind.

289. (1) Where in the course of a criminal trial, the court has reason to suspect the mental capacity or soundness of mind of a accused person, by virtue of which he is unable to stand trial or defend himself, the court shall order the medical examination of the accused person's mental state or soundness of mind.

(2) An investigation under subsection (1) of this section may be held in the absence of the accused person where the Court is satisfied that owing to the state of the accused person's mind it would be in the interest of the accused person or of other persons or in the interests of public decency that he should be absent.

(3) Where the court is not satisfied that the accused person is capable of making his defense, the court shall adjourn the trial or proceedings and shall remand the person for a period not exceeding 1 month to be detained for observation in some suitable place.

(4) An accused person detained in accordance with subsection (3) of this section shall be kept under observation by a medical officer during the period of his remand and before the expiration of that period, the medical officer shall:

- a) give to the Court his opinion in writing as to the state of mind of that person; and
- b) where he is unable within the period to form any definite opinion, he shall so certify to the court and ask for a further remand and such further remand may extend to a period of 3 months.

(5) Where further period of remand is granted under subsection (4) of this section, the case shall be fixed returnable by the court at the expiration of the period granted under subsection 4 (b) of this section.

(6) A Court, before which an accused person suspected to be of unsound mind is accused of any offence may, on the application of the Attorney-General or a law officer made at any stage of the proceedings prior to the trial, order that the person be sent to an asylum or such other suitable place for observation.

(7) The medical officer in charge of the asylum or such other suitable place shall, within a period not exceeding 1 month in the first instance or on application to the court for a further period of 3 months, submit to the court a report in writing containing his opinion on the soundness of mind of the accused person.

Report from 290.Where the medical officer or such officer in charge of the asylum or

- a) sound mind and capable of making his defense, the court shall, unless it is satisfied by the defence that the accused person is of unsound mind, proceed with the trial; or
- b) unsound mind and incapable of making his defense, the court shall, where it is satisfied of the fact, postpone the proceeding.

(2) The trial of the issue as to whether or not the accused person is of unsound mind and incapable of making his defense shall, where the finding is that he is of sound mind and capable of making his defence, be deemed to be part of his trial before the Court.

(3) The certificate of the medical officer who issued the certificate shall be admissible under this section even in the absence from court of the medical officer provided there is sufficient explanation for his absence.

(4) Where the accused person is certified to be of unsound mind and incapable of making his defense, it shall not be compulsory for him to be present in Court during proceedings under this section.

Release of defendant of unsound mind pending investigation or trial.

292 (1)Where a accused person is found to be unsound mind incapable of making his defence, if the offence charged is bailable by the Court, it may in its discretion, release him on sufficient security being given:

- a) that he shall be properly taken care of and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or to any other person; and
 - b) for his appearance when required before the Court appoints in that behalf.
- (2) Where a accused person is before a Magistrate charged with an offence which is bailable by a Judge but not by a Magistrate or where the offence is bailable by a Magistrate but the Magistrate refused to grant bail, the Magistrate shall inform the accused person of his right to apply to a Judge for bail.
- (3) Where the offence charged is not bailable by the High Court or where a Judge has refused bail under subsection (1) of this section or after an application made under subsection (2) of this section or where sufficient security is not given or where no application is made for bail, the Judge shall report the case to the Attorney-General, who, after consideration of the report may, in his discretion, order the accused person to be confined in a lunatic asylum or other suitable place of safe custody and the Judge shall give effect to the order.
- (4) Where the order is not given within 2 months, the court discharge the accused person or release him on bail on satisfaction that doing so will not endanger the life of the accused person or the life of anyone else.
- (5) Pending the order of the Attorney-General, the accused person may be committed to an asylum or other suitable place of custody for safe custody.

Resumption of Proceedings or trial.

293. Where a proceeding or trial is postponed under sections 289 or 292 of this Law, the court may at any time re-open the proceeding or re-commence the trial and require the accused person to appear or be brought before the Court.

Resumption of proceedings after release under section 292.

294. Where the accused person has been released under section 292 of this Law, the Court may at any time require the accused person to appear or be brought before it and may again proceed with the proceeding or trial.

Where Defendant appears to have been of unsound mind.

295. Where the accused person appears to be of unsound mind at the time of any remand or similar pre-trial proceedings before a court, and the issue of the state of soundness of mind of the accused person is in issue, being a defence to the main offence for which he is arrested relating to insanity or intoxication, the court shall proceed to deal with the accused person in accordance with section 289 – 303 of this Law and shall not make any finding of fact in relation to such defence that the accused person is open to plead at his trial for the offence.

Safe custody of Defendant discharged.

296. Where the finding states that the accused person committed the act alleged, the court before which the trial has been held shall, where the act would have but for the finding of incapacity constituted an offence, order the person to be kept in safe custody in such place and manner as the court thinks fit and shall, within 31 days of the order, report the case for an order of the Attorney-General.

Order of the Attorney-General in pursuant to section 295.

297.(1) The Attorney-General may at his discretion order the accused person to be confined pursuant to section 289 in a mental health asylum, prison or other suitable place of safe custody.

(2) In exercising this discretion, the Attorney-General shall ensure that the accused person is placed in such facility as to afford him adequate care at the expense of the State.

Observation of prisoners of unsound mind.

298. Where an accused person is confined under sections 289 (3) and (5), 292 or 295 of this Law, the medical officer of the correctional service, where such accused person is confined in correctional centre, or the medical officer attached to the asylum or other facility, where he is confined in any asylum or such facility shall keep him under observation in order to ascertain his state of mind and such medical officer shall make a special report for the information of the Attorney-

General as to the state of mind of such accused person at that time or times as the Attorney-General shall require.

Procedure where defendant of unsound mind is certified to make his defence 299. Where a accused person is, under the provisions of section 289 of this Law, confined in a prison, asylum or other facility and is certified by the medical officer to whom the case is referred for his report to be capable of making his defence, the accused person shall be taken before the Court at such time as the court appoints, and the Court shall proceed with the trial or proceeding, as the case may be, and the certificate shall be receivable as evidence.

seizure of property taken during arrest or investigation or stolen.*

346.(1) The seizure by the police of property taken during arrest or investigation under this law, or alleged or suspected to have been stolen or found in circumstances which create a suspicion of the commission of an offence, shall, within a period not exceeding 48 hours of the taking of the property or thing, be reported to a court, and the court shall make an order in respect of the disposal of the property or its delivery to the person entitled to its possession or such other orders as it may deem fit in the circumstances.

(2) Where the person entitled to the possession of property referred to in subsection (1) of this section, is unknown, the court may detain it and shall issue a public notice specifying the articles of which the property consists and requiring any person who may have a claim to it, to appear before the court and establish his claim within six months from the date of the notice.

*Procedure where owner of property
seized is unknown.*

347.(1) Where no person within the period referred to in section 350 of this law, established his claim to property referred to in that section and where the person in whose possession the property was found is unable to show that it was lawfully acquired by him, the property shall be at the disposal of the court and may be sold in accordance with the order of the court and proceed forfeited to the State Government.

(2) At any time within six years from the date of the property coming into the possession of the police, the court may direct the property or the proceeds of the sale of the property to be delivered to any person proving his title to it, on payment by him, of any expenses incurred by the court in the matter.

Power to sell perishable property.

348. Where the person entitled to the possession of property referred to in section 350 of this law, is unknown or absent and the property is subject to speedy decay or, for the benefit of the owner, the court may, at any time, direct it to be sold and the provisions of sections 350 and 351 of this law shall, as nearly as may be practicable, apply to the net proceeds of the sale.

Payment to innocent person of money found on defendant.

349. Where a accused person is convicted of an offence relating to property and it is proved that a person has bought the stolen property from him without knowing or having reason to believe that the property was stolen, and that money has, on the arrest of the convict been taken out of his possession, the court may:

- a) on the application of the purchaser; and
- b) on the restitution of the stolen property to the person entitled to possession, order that out of the money a sum not exceeding the price paid by the purchaser, shall be delivered to him.

Restitution and disposition of property found on Defendant.

350. Where, on the arrest of a accused person charged with an offence, any property, other than that used in the commission of the offence, is taken from him, the court before which he is charged may order that the property or any part of it be:

- a) Restored to the person who appears to the court to be entitled to it, and, where he is the person charged, that it be restored either to him or to such other person as he may direct; or

- b) Applied to the payment of any costs or compensation directed to be paid by the accused person charged.

Restitution of stolen property.

351.(1) Where a accused person is convicted of an offence relating to property, the court convicting him may order that the property or any part of it be restored to the person who appears to it to be the owner, either on payment or without payment by the owner, to the person in possession of the property or any part of it, or of any sum named in the order.

(2) This section does not apply to:

- a) a valuable security which has been paid or discharged in good faith by a person liable to pay or discharge the instrument; or
- b) a negotiable instrument which has been received in good faith by transfer or delivery by a person for a just and valuable consideration without notice or without any reasonable cause to suspect that it had been stolen.

Destruction of articles relating to counterfeiting where charge is laid.

352. Where an accused person is charged with an offence relating to counterfeit currency and in that accused person's possession, actual or constructive, was found a counterfeit currency or thing intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency, then, whether the charge proceeds to conviction or not, the currency or thing shall not be returned to the accused person charged or to the person from whom it was taken but shall be destroyed in such a manner as the court may order.

Destruction of articles relating to counterfeiting where no charge is laid.

353.(1) Where a person comes into possession of a currency, which he believes to be counterfeit or which, in his opinion, is to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency, he may hand the currency or thing to any officer of the Central Bank of Nigeria designated by the Bank to receive it, or to any police officer not below the rank of an

Inspector, and the officer of the Central Bank of Nigeria, or police officer if satisfied that the currency:

- a) is not counterfeit, or is intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency shall return the currency or thing, as the case may be, to the person purporting to be the owner of it, if known, and
 - b) is counterfeit or is intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currencies and if no charge is to be preferred against a person in connection with the currency or thing,
- may destroy, or cause to be destroyed the currency or thing in such manner and by such person as may be approved by the Central Bank of Nigeria.

(2) Notice of an action to be taken under subsection (1) (a) of this section, shall have been given to the person who appears to be the owner of a currency, matter or thing, where the person is known and can easily be found, that the coin or thing will be destroyed at the end of a specified number of days unless the owner shows that the currency is not counterfeit or that the thing is not intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency.

(3) A reasonable time shall be allowed for the person to provide proof that the currency is not counterfeit or that the thing is not intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency and the person who alleges that he is the owner of or otherwise entitled to the currency or thing shall have no claim against the officer of the Central Bank of Nigeria, police officer or the Federal Government in respect of the coin or thing so destroyed.

Detention and destruction of counterfeit currency, etc..

354.(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, section 356 and 357 of this law, shall apply in relation to notes purporting to be legal tender in Nigeria as those sections apply in relation to currency.

(2) Any currency, matter or thing shall not be destroyed by virtue of the provisions of this part except:

- a) a court orders its destruction, in connection with a conviction for an offence; or
 - b) it appears to a Magistrate court having jurisdiction in the place where the currency, matter or thing is for the time being situated, on an application made in accordance with rules of court, that the existence of the currency, matter or thing involves a breach of the law and the court makes an order for its forfeiture and destruction accordingly.
- (3) In the absence of a conviction for an offence in respect of the currency, matter or thing and any pending prosecution for the offence, and of an order or pending application for an order for its forfeiture, the currency, matter or thing:
- i. has been voluntarily surrendered by the person having possession of it, to the proper official of the Central Bank of Nigeria or a superior police officer, or
 - ii. is discovered in a lodgment made with the Central Bank by a commercial bank.

Mode of dealing with forfeiture not pecuniary.

355. Subject to the provisions of any law, an article, not pecuniary, forfeited in respect of a summary conviction for an offence, the seizure, forfeiture or disposition of which may be enforced by the court may be sold or disposed of in such manner as the court may direct, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the like manner as if the proceeds were a penalty imposed under the law on which the proceedings for the forfeiture is founded.

PART 35 :
SUMMARY PROCEDURE IN PERJURY

Summary procedure in perjury.

356.(1) Where it appears to a court that a person has committed perjury in any proceeding before it, the court, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, and in addition, in the case of a Magistrate, to subsection (3) of this section may:

- a) commit him for trial on a charge of perjury and bind any person by recognizance to give evidence at his trial; or
- b) try him summarily for contempt of court and where he is found guilty, commit him to correctional service for a period not exceeding 6 months or fine him in such sum in accordance with the scale of fine in the Fourth schedule to this law.

Fourth schedule.

(2) Where a court decides to try a person summarily, under subsection (1) of this section, for contempt of court, the court shall:

- a) specify the perjury alleged and shall direct the attention of the person to be charged to the inconsistencies on which the charge is based; and
- b) require him to give his explanation to the inconsistencies and record the explanation.

(3) Where a court orders a person to be imprisoned or to pay a fine under subsection (1) of this section, it shall:

- a) not issue a warrant of commitment or make an order for imprisonment for non-payment of the fine but shall either remand the person or release him on a recognizance with or without sureties, to come up before the court when called upon; and
- b) immediately forward to the Chief Judge or such Judge as the Chief Judge may direct, a certified copy of the proceedings.

(4) The Chief Judge or Judge to whom a certified copy of the proceedings is forwarded pursuant to subsection (3) of this section:

- a) may, without hearing argument and in the absence of the person concerned, set aside or confirm the order or reduce the sentence of imprisonment or the amount of the fine; and
 - b) shall inform the court immediately of this decision.
- (5) Where the Chief Judge or Judge does not wholly set aside the court's order, the court shall immediately issue its warrant of commitment or make the necessary order for payment of the fine in accordance with the terms of the Chief Judge or Judge's order.
- (6) An imprisonment or a fine ordered or imposed under this section is a bar to any other proceeding for the same offence except where the order of the court has been wholly set aside.

PART 36 :

TRIALS AND SUMMARY TRIALS GENERALLY

Trials.

357.(1) Trials shall be held in the High Court on a charge filed:

- a) by the Attorney-General or a law officer in his office;
 - b) by a Legal Officer of any prosecuting agency;
 - c) by a private prosecutor duly authorized by the Attorney-General; or
 - d) summarily, in accordance with the provisions of this law.
- (2) Trials shall be held in the Magistrate court or any other court exercising criminal jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of this law relating to summary trials.

Non-appearance and non-representation of legal practitioner.

358.(1) Where an accused person charged before the court is not represented by a legal practitioner, the court shall:

- a) inform him of his rights to a legal practitioner of his choice or of his right to defend himself; or
 - b) enquire from him, whether he wishes to engage his own legal practitioner, or a legal practitioner engaged for him by way of legal aid.
- (2) Where the legal practitioner who had appeared on behalf of the accused person ceases to appear in court on two consecutive sessions of the court, the court shall enquire from the accused person if he wishes to engage another legal practitioner or a legal practitioner engaged for him by way of legal aid.
- (3) Where the accused person wishes to engage legal practitioner of his choice, the court shall allow him reasonable time but not exceeding 30 days to do so.
- (4) Where the accused person fails or is to engage a legal practitioner for himself within a reasonable time, the court may direct that the accused person be represented by a legal practitioner engaged by way of legal aid.
- (5) The court may assign to any legal practitioner whose place of practice is within the jurisdiction of the court, any case of a accused person who has no legal representation, and the legal practitioner shall undertake the defence of the accused person with all due diligence, in which case, the legal practitioner shall not pay any filing fee or service fee in respect of the case so assigned.
- (6) A legal practitioner so engaged shall be paid such reasonable sum as may be determined by the Attorney-General.
- (7) Where the accused person chooses to represent himself, the court shall:
- a) inform him of his rights under the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999 and under this law;
 - b) indicate the fact of having so informed the accused person on the record; and

- (8) A legal practitioner, other than a law officer, engaged in any matter shall be bound to conduct the case on behalf of the prosecution or accused person until final judgment, unless allowed for any special reason to cease from acting by the court of its own motion or upon application by the legal practitioner.
- (9) Where a legal practitioner intends to disengage from a matter, he shall notify the court, not less than 3 days before the date fixed for hearing and such notice shall be served on the court and all parties.

When summary trials shall be held.

- 359.(1) Trials shall be held summarily in:
- a) the High Court in respect of perjury;
 - b) respect of an offence which by a law made by the House of Assembly is triable summarily; and
 - c) respect of a trial for an offence punishable with less than 3 years imprisonment in the Magistrate Court.
- (2) In a trial in any court, the prosecution shall, provide the accused person all materials that the prosecution intends to rely on at the trial, before or at the commencement of the trial.

Non-appearance of complainant.

360. (1) When the case is called, the accused person appears voluntarily in obedience to the summons or is brought before the court under a warrant, and the complainant having, to the satisfaction of the court, had due notice of the time and place of hearing, does not appear in person or in the manner authorized by a written law, the court may dismiss the complaint.
- (2) Where the court receives a reasonable excuse for the non-appearance of the complainant or his representative or for other sufficient reason, it shall adjourn the hearing of the complaint to some future day on such terms as the court may deem just.

Non-appearance of defendant.

- 361.(1) Where a case is called in which summons has been issued and the accused person does not appear and no sufficient excuse is offered for his absence, then the court where it is:

- a) satisfied that the summons, if any, has been duly served, may issue a bench warrant for his arrest; or
- b) not satisfied that the summons has been duly served or where a warrant had been issued, in the first instance, for the arrest of the accused person.

shall adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, in order that proper service may be effected or, until the accused person is arrested, as the case may be.

(2) Where the accused person is afterward arrested on a bench warrant, he shall be brought before the court immediately which may then commit him by warrant to prison or to such other place of safe custody as it deems fit and order him to be brought before the court at a certain time and place.

(3) The complainant shall, by direction of the court, be served due notice of the time and place ordered under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Where the court, in exercise of its discretion, has granted bail to the accused person and the accused person fails to attend court without reasonable explanation, the court shall continue with the trial in his absence and convict him unless the court sees reasons otherwise, provided that proceedings in the absence of the accused person shall take place after two adjournments or as the court may deem fit.

(5) The court shall impose a sentence only when the accused person is arrested or surrenders to the custody of the court.

Non-appearance of both parties.

362.(1) Where the case is called and neither the prosecutor nor the accused person appears, or the accused person appears and the prosecutor does not appear, the court shall make such order as the justice of the case requires.

(2) The court may, in the order, include such direction as to the payment of costs as the court considers fit.

Appearance of both parties.

363. When the case is called and both the complainant and the accused person appear, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the case.

Withdrawal of complaint.

364. Where a complainant, at any time before judgment is delivered in a case, satisfies the court that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw his complaint, the court may permit him to withdraw the complaint and shall thereupon acquit the accused person.

Manner of hearing.

365.(1) At the commencement of the hearing, the court shall state, or cause to be stated to the accused person, the substance of the complaint, and shall ask him whether he is guilty or not guilty.

(2) Where the accused person pleads guilty and the court is satisfied that he has admitted the offence and shown no cause or no sufficient cause why sentence should not be passed, the court shall proceed to sentence him.

(3) Where the accused person pleads not guilty, the court shall direct all witnesses to leave the court and upon the direction, the provisions of section 212 of the Evidence Act, shall apply, but failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection shall not invalidate the proceedings but would affect the weight of evidence given by that witness who fails to leave the court on the direction being given.

(4) Notwithstanding the provision of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, in capital offences the court shall proceed with the trial irrespective of the plea by the accused person.

(5) The court shall then proceed:

- a) to hear the prosecutor and such witnesses as he may call and such other evidence as he may adduce in support of the charge; and

- b) to hear the accused person and such witnesses as he may call and such other evidence as he may adduce in his defence.
- (6) The prosecutor may put questions to each witness called by the accused person and where the accused person gives evidence, he may be cross-examined.
- (7) Where the Accused person is not represented by a legal practitioner, the court shall, at the close of the examination of each witness for the prosecution, ask the accused person whether he wishes to put any question to that witness, and shall record the accused person's answer.
- (8) The accused person shall take his plea in the dock, except the Judge direct otherwise.

Discharge of Defendant when no case to answer.

366. Where at the close of the evidence in support of the charge, it appears to the court that a case is not made out against the accused person sufficiently to require him to make a defence, the court shall, as to that particular charge, discharge him being guided by the provisions of section 312 of this law.

Defence.

367.(1) At the close of the evidence in support of the charge, where it appears to the court that a prima facie case is made out against the accused person sufficiently to require him to make a defence, the court shall call on him for his defence and where the accused person is not represented by a legal practitioner, the court shall inform him of the alternatives open to him that he may:

- a) make a statement, without being sworn, from the place where he then is, in which case he will not be liable to cross-examination; or
- b) give evidence in the witness box, after being sworn as a witness, in which case he will be liable to cross-examination; or
- c) call any witness or adduce any other evidence in his defence.

(2) Where the accused person is represented by a legal practitioner, the court shall call on the legal practitioner to proceed with the defence.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, oath of denial shall be administered in accordance with the principles of Sharia by the sharia courts.

Process for compelling production of evidence at instance of Defendant.

368.(1) The accused person may apply to the court to issue a process for compelling the attendance of a witness for the purpose of examination or the production of a document or any other thing.

(2) On an application by the accused person under subsection (1) of this section, the court shall issue the process unless for reasons to be recorded by it in writing it considers that the application is made for the purpose of vexatious or delay or of defeating the aims of justice.

Saving as to section 367(1).

369.Failure to comply with the requirements of section 367(1) of this law, shall not of itself vitiate the trial where the court:

- a) Called on the accused person for his defence;
- b) Asked the accused person if he had any witness; and
- c) Heard the accused person and his witnesses and other evidence, if any.

Evidence in reply.

370.Where the accused person adduces in his defence a new matter, which the prosecution could not foresee, the prosecution may, with the leave of the court, adduce evidence to rebut the new matter or evidence.

Power to take deposition in certain cases.

371.(1) In certain exceptional circumstances, where the evidence of a technical, professional or expert witness would not ordinarily be contentious as to require cross-examination, the court may grant leave for the evidence to be taken in writing or by electronic recording device, on oath or affirmation of the witness, and the deposition shall form part of the record of the court.

(2) Where it appears to the court that a person who is seriously ill or hurt may not recover, but is able and willing to give material evidence relating to an offence and it is not practicable to take the evidence in accordance with the provisions of this law, the Judge or Magistrate shall:

- a) take in writing the statement on oath or affirmation of the person and subscribe the statement and certify that it contains accurately the whole of the statement made by the person; and
- b) add a statement of his reason for taking the statement, the date and place when and where the statement was taken and shall preserve the statement and file it for record.

(3) The court shall cause reasonable notice of the application to take the deposition in accordance with subsection (1) and (2) of this section, and of the time and place where it is to be taken to be served on the prosecutor and accused person and if the accused person, is in custody and his presence is required for the deposition, he shall be brought by the person in whose custody he is, to the place where the statement is to be taken, under an order in writing of the court.

*When statement
evidence.*

372.(1) A statement taken under section 371 of this law, may afterwards be used in evidence on the trial of a accused person accused of an offence to which the statement relates in accordance with the provisions of section 46 of the Evidence Act.

(2) The signature and attestation of the Judge or Magistrate shall be sufficient prima facie proof of the content of the statement, and that the statement was taken in all respect according to law and the attestation and signature shall be admitted without further proof unless the court sees reason to doubt its genuineness.

Notes of evidence to be recorded electronically or in writing.

373.(1) Without prejudice to section 371 of this law, court proceedings may be recorded electronically and verbatim such that at the end of each day's proceeding a transcript of such recording shall be printed to enable certification or authentication by the Judge or Magistrate who conducted the proceedings.

(2) Where court proceedings are not recorded as stated in sub-section (1), the court shall in every case take notes in writing of the oral evidence it considers material, in a book to be kept for that purpose and the book shall be signed by the court at the conclusion of each day's proceedings.

(3) The transcript of the recording of the court shall be signed or otherwise authenticated by the presiding Judge at an adjournment of the case or at the conclusion in a manner authorized from time to time by the Chief Judge in accordance with such condition as may be imposed by rules of court, and the signed transcript shall be taken as part of the record of the proceedings.

(4) A person is not entitled, as of right, to inspection of or to a copy of the record so kept except as may be expressly provided for by the rules of the court or by any other law.

(5) The record so kept or a copy of it purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy by the court shall, at all times, without further proof, be admitted as evidence of the proceedings as statement made by the witnesses.

Local inspection.

374.A court trying a case summarily shall make or cause to be made such local inspection as the circumstances of the case may require.

Cross complaints.

375.Where a complaint is made by one or more parties against another party or parties and there is a cross-complaint by the accused person or accused persons in the first named case, the court may, where it deems fit, hear and determine the complaints in the same proceeding.

Joinder of complaints.

376. Where two or more complaints are made by one or more parties against another party or parties and the complaints refer to the same matter, the court may, where it deems fit, hear and determine the complaints in the same proceedings.

Giving of decision upon conclusion of hearing.

377. On the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall either at the same or at an adjourned sitting give its decision on the case either by dismissing or convicting the accused person and may make such other orders as may seem just.

Power to bind parties to be of good behaviour.

378.(1) In a summary trial, the court may, whether the complaint is dismissed or not, by order bind over either the complainant or accused person, or both, with or without a surety or sureties, to be of good behaviour.

(2) A person who breaches an order made, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, may be imprisoned or a term not exceeding three months in addition to any other punishment to which the person is liable.

(3) Before a binding order pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, or an order for imprisonment or any other punishment under subsection (2) of this section, is made, the person to be affected by the order shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

Effect of judgment of dismissal on merits, not on merit and without prejudice.

379.(1) Where a charge is dismissed on merits, the dismissal has the same effect as an acquittal.

(2) Where a charge is dismissed but not on merits, or stated to be dismissal without prejudice, the dismissal does not have the same effect as an acquittal.

Summary trial of child by Magistrate.

380. Where a child is proceeded against before a court for an offence, the court shall have regard to the provisions of the Children and Young Persons Law.

remand

381. Without prejudice to any other power which a Magistra may possess, he may, for the purposes of ascertaining whether it is expedient to deal with a case summarily, either before or during the hearing of the case, adjourn the case and remand the person charged for a period not exceeding 48 hours or release him on bail.

Law officer may request case to be adjourned or dealt with specially.

382.(1) A law officer, in a case where a charge of an indictable offence is being proceeded with summarily by a Magistrate, may, at any time before judgment, request the Magistrate to deal with the case as one for trial on charge.

(2) On receipt of the request, the Magistrate shall adjourn the proceeding until such a time as a charge is filed in the High Court, provided that the charge shall be filed within a period of 30 days of the date of the order granting the request.

(3) The Magistrate shall make the case returnable for a period not exceeding 32 days from the date of the grant of the request.

(4) Where at the end of the period of 30 days provided in subsection (2) of this section, the charge against the accused person has not been filed at the High Court, the Magistrate shall proceed on the return date to try the charge summarily where he has jurisdiction or may make an order releasing the accused person on bail pending his arraignment on the Charge as requested by the law officer.

Adjourned for law officer's decision.

383.(1) Where a charge for an offence is being tried summarily by a Magistrate, he shall, at the request of a person in charge of the prosecution made at any time before judgment, adjourn the hearing of the charge for consultation with a law officer with a view to obtaining a request to proceed in accordance with section 386 of this law.

(2) The request of the law officer so consulted shall be filed within 14 days of the date the Magistrate grants the request of the person prosecuting, failing which the Magistrate shall proceed to try and conclude the case summarily.

(3) Where the Magistrate grants an adjournment at request under subsection (1) of this section, the adjournment shall not be for a period exceeding 15 days, and the Magistrate may grant the accused person bail.

Security for peace in cases tried summarily.

384.(1) An accused person convicted of an offence tried summarily may, instead of, or in addition to any prescribed punishment, be ordered to enter into his own recognizance, with or without sureties, in such amount as the court thinks fit that he shall keep the peace and of good behaviour for a reasonable period fixed by the court.

(2) The convict may be ordered to be imprisoned until the recognizance is entered into, but the imprisonment shall not:

- a) Extend for a term longer than 1 year; and
- b) Together with the fixed term of imprisonment, if any, extend for a term longer than the longest term for which he might be sentenced to be imprisoned without fine for the offence which he was convicted.

Case files, legal advice, and related proceedings.

385.(1) Where an offence for which the Magistrate court has no jurisdiction to try is preferred against a accused person, the police shall at the end of investigation submit the original case file to the office of the Attorney-General.

(2) The Attorney-General shall, within 14 days of receipt of the police case file, issue and serve his legal advice indicating whether or not there is a prima facie case against the accused person for which he can be prosecuted.

(3) Where the Attorney-General is of the opinion, as contained in the legal advice, that the suspect has no prima facie case to answer, he shall serve a copy of the legal advice on the:

- a) court before whom the suspect was remanded in correctional service, where he is in remand custody, or before whom the suspect was granted bail, where he is on bail; and
 - b) suspect in respect of whom legal advice is preferred through the prison authority, where the suspect is remanded in custody, or through his legal representative, if any.
- (4) Where the offence is one for which a Magistrate court has jurisdiction to try, the prosecutor shall file the First Information Report or charge at the Magistrate court, accompanied with:
- a) the list of witnesses;
 - b) the list of exhibits;
 - c) statement of the witnesses and the accused person; and
 - d) any report, document or material that the prosecution intends to rely on at the trial of the offence, but the prosecution may, with the leave of the court, file and serve any additional document.
- (5) The police or the officer in charge of the prison in which the suspect is remanded in custody shall on receipt of the legal advice, release the suspect immediately from detention where there is no case to answer.
- (6) The court referred to in subsection (3) (b) of this section, shall, on receipt of the legal advice, dismiss the charge against the suspect and accordingly discharge the suspect.
- (7) The Attorney-General shall send a law officer in his office to the court where the order of remand was made and ensure the discharge of the remand order and of the suspects.
- (8) Where the Attorney-General is of the opinion, as contained in the legal advice, that the suspect has a prima facie case to answer, he shall file and serve the charge in accordance with the provisions of this law.

(9) A form as prescribed in the First schedule to this law, including a desire to be represented by legal practitioner of his choice or by a legal practitioner from the Legal Aid Council or any other organization providing free legal representation to accused persons shall be attached to each legal advice for the purpose of endorsement by the person in respect of whom legal advice is preferred and against whom the First Information Report or charge is filed.

(10) Where the accused person indicates in the form referred to in subsection (8) of this section that, he wishes to be represented by a legal practitioner of the Legal Aid Council or any other organization providing free legal representation, he shall forward the Form to the Chief Registrar of the court before whom the Charge for his trial has been filed and the Chief Registrar shall, within 14 days of receipt of the form, ensure that a legal practitioner of the Legal Aid Council as stipulated under this sub-section or any other organization providing free legal representation for the accused person, and by notice in writing inform the accused person of the particulars of the legal representation arranged for him.

(11) The Chief Registrar shall, upon receipt of the form, forward same to the State Director of the Legal Aid Council or to the nearest Legal Aid Council office where the court is located.

PART 37 : RULES RELATING TO CHARGES

*Second schedule
Filing of charge.*

386.A charge may be filed by: -

- a) the Attorney-General or officers in his office;
- b) a public officer acting in his official capacity;
- c) a private legal practitioner authorized by the Attorney-General.

*Assignment of
of trial.*

387.(1) Where a charge has been filed in the court, the Chief Judge shall take appropriate steps to ensure that the charge filed is assigned to a court for trial within 7 days of its filing.

(2) On assigning the charge, the court to which the charge is assigned shall within 5 days of the assignment issue notice of trial to the witnesses and accused persons and a production warrant properly endorsed by the Judge in respect of the accused person charged, where he is in custody, for the purpose of ensuring his appearance on the date of arraignment, and the Registrar of the Court shall ensure the prompt service of the notice and charge not more than 3 days from the date they are issued.

(3) Where the accused person named in the charge is in custody, the notice of trial and the charge shall be delivered to him through the officer in charge of the prison in which he is detained, and the warrant for his production shall be served on the officer of the prison.

(4) Where the accused person is not in custody, the notice of trial and the charge shall be served on him personally.

(5) Where it is impossible or impracticable to effect personal service of the notice of trial and charge on the accused person, they may be served on him, with leave of court, through his legal practitioner, if any, or on his surety or sureties, or on an adult in his household or in such other manner as the court shall deem fit and the Charge or the hearing Notice shall be deemed to be duly served on the accused person.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prevent the accused person from being tried by reason only that the notice of trial and the charge were served on him less than 3 days before the date of trial, where he consents to being so tried.

Venue

388.The place of trial shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this law.

Change of venue.

389.Notwithstanding the provisions of section 394 of this law:

- a) where a cause is commenced in any other division than that in which it ought to have been commenced, it may, notwithstanding, be tried in that division in which it was commenced, but where the accused person objects, the court may, where it considers the objection reasonable, transfer the case to the proper division in which it ought to have been commenced; and
- b) the prosecutor or the accused person may, whenever he considers that the ends of justice so require in any case, apply to the court either to transfer the hearing from one division to another or from one part of the division to another part of the same division.
- c) no appeal shall lie from any order of transfer made under this section.

Effect of change of venue.

390.Where a case is transferred from one place in a division to another place in the same division or to another division, the case shall be tried and determined at the place or in the division to which it has been transferred; and all recognizance, subpoenas, and proceedings in or relation to the case are deemed to be returnable at the latter place or division and all witnesses who are or summoned to attend the trial shall be informed accordingly and shall attend at such latter place or division.

Form of notice of trial.

391.The Registrar or any other person directed by the court, shall endorse on, or annex to, every charge delivered to the sheriff or proper officer, for service, a notice of trial and such notice shall specify the particular sessions at which the party is to be tried on the charge and shall be in the appropriate form or as near to it as may be.

- (a) issue a warrant of committal;
- (b) allow time for the payment of the said sum; and
- (c) direct that the accused person liable to pay the said sum shall be at liberty to give, to the satisfaction of the Court, security, either with or without a surety or sureties, for the payment of the said sum or any installment.

*Allowance for time and payment
by instalment.*

430. (1) Where time has been allowed for the payment of a sum adjudged to be paid upon conviction or order, further time may, on an application by or on behalf of the convict liable to pay the sum, be allowed by a Court having jurisdiction to issue a warrant of committal in respect of the non-payment of that sum, the Court may, subject as aforesaid, direct payment by instalments of the sum so adjudged to be paid.

(2) Where a sum of money is directed to be paid by instalments and default is made in the payment of any one instalment, proceedings may be taken as if default has been made in the payment of all the installments remaining unpaid.

(3) Where before the expiration of the time allowed, the convict surrenders himself to the Court having jurisdiction to issue a warrant of committal in respect of the non-payment of the sum and states that he prefers immediate committal, the Court may, if it thinks fit, issue a warrant committing him to correctional service.

(4) A warrant of committal issued under the provisions of this section may be executed on any day, including a Sunday or a public holiday.

Payment of penalty to person executing warrant.

431. In all cases where a convict, against whom a warrant of committal for non-payment of a sum of money adjudged to be paid by an order is issued, pays or tenders to the person having the execution of the warrant the sum or sums mentioned in the warrant together with the amount of the expenses of the warrant up to the time of the payment or tender, the person having the execution of the warrant shall not execute the warrant.

(1) A recognizance ordered to be entered into under this Part shall, where the Court so ordered, contain a condition that the accused person be under the supervision of such person or persons of the same sex, to be called a probation officer, and may, with his consent, be named in the Court during the period specified in the Order.

(2) A recognizance under this Part may contain such additional conditions with respect to residence, abstention from intoxicating substance and any other matter as the Court may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, consider necessary for preventing a repetition of the same offence or the commission of other offences.

(3) The Court making a Probation Order shall furnish to the accused person a notice in writing stating in simple terms the conditions he is required to observe.

Relieving probation officer of his

447. A Probation Officer may, at any time, be relieved of his duties or in case of the death of the probation officer, another person may with his consent be substituted by the Court before which the accused person is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction or sentence.

*Duties of
officers.*

448. (1) A probation officer shall, subject to the directions of the Court:

(a) where the person on probation is not actually with the probation officer, visit or receive reports on the person under supervision at such reasonable intervals as may be specified in the probation order or as the probation officer may think fit;

(b) ensure that he observes the conditions of his recognizance;

(c) report to the Court as to his behavior; and

(d) advise and assist him if, and when necessary.

(2) The Chief Judge shall make regulations with respect to the appointment of probation officers, including designation of persons of good character as probation officers from which a Court within the district or division where the probation officer resides may make its appointment under section 454 of this Law.

Variation of terms and conditions of probation.

449. The Court before which a accused person is bound by a recognizance under this Part to appear for conviction and sentence or for sentence may:

(a) at any time where it appears to it on the application of the probation officer that it is expedient that the terms or condition of the recognizance should be varied, summon the accused person bound by the recognizance to appear before it and if he fails to show cause why the variation should not be made:

(i) vary the terms of the recognizance by extending or reducing the duration, which shall not exceed 3 years from the date of the original order; or

(ii) alter the conditions or insert additional conditions; or

(b) on application being made by the probation officer, and on being satisfied that the conduct of the accused person bound by the recognizance has been such as to make it unnecessary for him to be under supervision, discharge the recognizance.

Provisions in case of convict failing to observe conditions of release.

450. (1) Where the Court before which a accused person is bound by his recognizance under this Part to appear for conviction or sentence is satisfied by information on oath that the accused person has failed to observe any of the conditions of his recognizance, it may issue a warrant for his arrest or may, where it thinks fit, instead of issuing a warrant in the first instance, issue a summons to the accused person and his sureties, if any, requiring him or them to appear in Court at such time as may be specified in the summons.

(2) The accused person when arrested shall, if not brought before the Court which he is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction or sentence, be brought before another Court.

(3) The Court before which an accused person on arrest is brought or before which he appears in pursuance of the summons may, where it is not the Court before which he is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction or sentence, remand him in to custody or release on bail until he can be brought before the last-mentioned Court.

(4) An accused person so remanded in custody may be committed during remand to a prison to which the Court having power to convict or sentence him has power to commit prisoners.

(5) A Court before which an accused person is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction and sentence on being satisfied that he has failed to observe a condition of his recognizance may, without further proof of his guilt, convict and sentence him for the original offence.

Suspended sentence and community service.

451. (1) Notwithstanding the provision of any other Law creating an offence, where the Court sees reason, the Court may order that the sentence it imposed on the convict be, with or without conditions suspended, in which case the convict shall be required to serve the sentence in accordance with the conditions of the suspension.

(2) The Court may, with or without conditions, sentence the convict to perform specified service in his community or such community or place as the Court may direct.

(3) A convict shall not be sentenced to suspended sentence or to community service for an offence involving the use of arms, offensive weapon, sexual offences or for an offence which the punishment exceeds imprisonment for term of 3 years.

(4) The Court, in exercising its power under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall have regard to the need to:

(a) reduce congestion in prisons;

(b) rehabilitate prisoners by making them to undertake productive work; and

(c) prevent convicts who commit simple offences from mixing with hardened criminals.

*Arrangements of community
service.*

452. (1) The Chief Judge shall establish in every Judicial Division a Community Service Centre to be headed by a Registrar who shall be responsible for overseeing the execution of Community Service Orders in that Division.

(2) The Registrar shall be assisted by suitable personnel who shall supervise the implementation of Community Service Orders that may be handed down by the Courts.

(3) The functions of the Community Service Centre shall include:

(a) documenting and keeping detailed information about convicts sentenced to Community Service including the:

- (i) name of the convict;
 - (ii) sentence and the date of the sentence;

 - (a) environmental sanitation, including cutting grasses, washing drainages, cleaning the environmental and washing public places;
 - (b) assisting in the production of agricultural produce, construction, or mining; and
 - (c) any other type of service which in the opinion of the Court would have a beneficial and reformative effect on the character of the convict.
- (5) The Community Service sentence shall be performed as close as possible to the place where the convict ordinarily resides to ensure that the community can monitor his movement.
- (6) Before passing a Community Service Order, the Court shall consider the circumstances, character, antecedents of the convict and other factors that may be brought to its attention by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre.
- (7) A convict sentenced to community service shall not at the same time be sentenced to a term of imprisonment for the same offence, but may, in default of performing his community service diligently and to the satisfaction of the Court, be sentenced to a term of imprisonment for the remaining part of his community service to which he is in default or neglect.
- (8) Upon sentence to community service, a convict shall be required to produce a guarantor who shall undertake to produce the convict if he absconds from community service.

(9) The guarantor shall be a relation of the convict or any other responsible person of adequate means or substance who shall produce the convict when required by the Court, failing which the guarantor shall be liable to a fine of One Hundred Thousand Naira (~~₦~~100, 000.00) or more as the circumstances of each case may require.

Performance of Community Service Order.

453. (1) The Community Service Order shall be performed for a period of not more than 6 months and the convict shall not work for more than 5 hours a day.

(2) The convict shall be under the supervision of a supervising officer or officers or Non-Governmental Organizations as may be designated by the Community Service Centre.

(3) The Community Service Order contains such directives as the Court may consider necessary for the supervision of the convict.

(4) The Registrar of the Court making the community service order shall forward to the Registrar of the Community Service Centre a copy of the Order together with any other document and information relating to the case.

*Default of convict in complying with Community Service
Order.*

454. (1) Where at any time during the community service period, the Registrar of the Community Service Centre informs the Court of the default of the convict in complying with the directives of the Community Service Order, the Court may issue a summons requiring the convict to appear before it.

(2) Where the convict fails, refuses or neglects to appear in obedience to the summons, the Court may issue a warrant of arrest.

(3) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the convict has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the Community Service Order, the Court may:

(a) vary the order to suit the circumstances of the case; or

(b) impose on him a fine not exceeding One Hundred Thousand Naira (N100,000.00) or cancel the order and sentence the convict to any punishment which could have been imposed in respect of the offence, but the period of community service already performed may count in the reduction of the sentence.

(4) A supervising officer shall not employ the convict for his or her personal benefit.

(5) Where a supervising officer employs the convict for his or her personal benefit, the officer is liable to a fine of Fifty Thousand Naira (N50, 000.00) or more, or such other punishment as the Court considers fit.

Commission of further offence.

455. Where a convict has been ordered to undergo community service on conviction by an original Court but has committed another offence during the period of community service, the following rules shall apply:

(a) the subsequent Court may add to the sentence or impose a term of imprisonment which might have been passed by the original Court and cancel the order of community service;

(b) the subsequent Court may take into account the period of community service served in reduction of the term of imprisonment;

(c) where the original Court is a High Court and the subsequent court is a subordinate Court, the subordinate court shall send the copy of the proceedings to the High Court and, on receipt of the proceedings from the subordinate Court, High Court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section; and

(d) where the original court is a subordinate Court and the subsequent is a High Court dealing with the matter at first instance or on appeal, the High Court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

Amendment, review and discharge of Community Service Orders.

456. (1) A convict undergoing community service who intends to change his or her place of residence shall inform the supervising officer of his intention to do so.

(2) On receipt of the information, the supervising officer shall furnish the Registrar of the Community Service Centre with the information giving the details of the case.

(3) On application by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre, the Centre shall make appropriate amendment in the community service order and inform the Court having jurisdiction in the area where the convict intends to reside.

(4) The Court shall give the convict a copy of the amended community service order which the convict shall present to the subsequent Community Service Centre.

*Discharge of Community Service
Order.*

457. (1) Where the convict has been ordered to undergo community service for a period of more than 4 months, the supervising officer shall, from time to time, give a report to the Registrar on the convict's performance and general conduct.

(2) The supervising Court based on the report made by the Registrar, may reduce the period of the community service specified in the community service order by not more than one-third where the convict is of good conduct.

(3) The Registrar shall make a report to the supervising court on the termination of a community service Order.

(4) The supervising officer who is to be responsible for the supervision of a convict shall be the officer designated by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre and if that supervising officer dies or is unable for any reason to carry out his duties, another supervising officer shall be appointed by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre.

(a) sentenced and serving his sentence in prison is of good behavior; and

(b) has served at least one-third of his prison term, or where he is sentenced to life imprisonment, he may make a recommendation to the Committee on Prerogative of Mercy for their consideration.

(2) A prisoner released under subsection (1) of this section shall undergo a rehabilitation programme in a government facility where available or any other appropriate facility to enable him to be properly reintegrated into the society.

PART 45 : TRIAL OF CORPORATION

*Interpretation
under this Part.*

460. (1) In this Part “representative” in relation to a corporation means a person duly appointed by the corporation to represent it for the purpose of doing any act or thing which the representative of a corporation is by this Part authorized to do, but a person so appointed shall not, by virtue only of his being appointed, be qualified to act on behalf of the corporation before any Court for any other purpose.

(3) A representative for the purposes of this Part need not be appointed under the seal of the corporation, and a statement in writing purporting to be signed by a managing director of the corporation, or by any person (by whatever name called) having, or being one of the persons having, the management of the affairs of the corporation, to the effect that the person named in the statement has been appointed as the representative of the corporation for the purposes of this Part, shall be admissible without further proof as prima facie evidence that the person has been so appointed.

corporation.*

461. Where a corporation is called upon to plead to any charge including a new charge under the provisions of this Law to charge added to or altered under the provision of this Law, it may enter in writing by its representative a plea of guilty or not and if either the corporation does not appear by a representative or, though it does so appear, fails to enter a plea, the Court shall order a plea of not guilty to be entered and the trial shall proceed as though the corporation had duly entered a plea of not guilty.

Charge against a corporation.

462. A charge may be preferred against a corporation after the preparation of the proofs of evidence relating to the charge.

Joinder of counts in same charge.

463. A charge under section 478 may include, either in substitution for or in addition to counts of charge, such offence for which proofs of evidence have been prepared, counts which may be lawfully joined in the same charge if they are founded on facts or evidence disclosed in the proofs of evidence.

Power of Representative.

464. A representative may, on behalf of a corporation:

(a) state, whether the corporation is ready to be tried on a charge or altered charge to which the corporation has been called on to plead;

(b) consent to the hearing and determination of a complaint before the return date of a summons; and

(c) express assent to the trial of the corporation on a charge, notwithstanding that a copy of the charge and notice of trial has not been served on the corporation 3 days or more before the date on which the corporation is to be tried.

Matters to be read, said or explained to Representative.

465. Where a representative appears, any requirement of this Law that anything shall be done in the presence of the defendant or shall be read or said or explained to the defendant, shall be construed as a requirement that, that thing shall be done in the presence of the representative or read or said or explained to the representative.

Non-appearance of Representative.

466. Where a representative does not appear, any such requirement as is referred to in section 481 of this Law, shall not apply.

Saving under this Part and joint charge against Corporation.

467. (1) Subject to the preceding provisions of this Part, the provisions of this Law relating to the inquiry into and trial of offences shall apply to a corporation as they apply to an adult.

(2) A corporation may be charged jointly and tried with an individual for any offence.

PART 46 : APPEALS

From Sharia Courts.*

468. Appeals from Sharia Courts in criminal matters shall be in accordance with the Sharia Court Laws, High Court Law or under this Law or any other Laws, or any rules made under any such Laws.

Appeals from Other courts.

469. Where a accused person has been acquitted or an order of dismissal made by a Magistrate the prosecutor may appeal to the High Court from such acquittal or dismissal on the ground that it is erroneous in Law or that the proceedings or any part thereof were in excess of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.

Appeals from Magistrate's Courts.

470. (1) Appeals from a magistrate's court to the High Courts of the State in criminal matters shall be in accordance with the High Court Law or under this Law.

(2) An appeal, in accordance with the provisions of this Part, shall be commenced by the appellant by giving notice to the Registrar of the court from which the appeal is brought and such notice of appeal shall be signed by the appellant.

(3) The notice of appeal shall be given in every case before the expiration of the 30th day after the day on which the court has made the decision appealed against.

(4) An appellant shall file many copies of his notice of appeal as there are parties to be served, in addition to the copies for the Court.

(5) An appellant, in an appeal brought in accordance with the provisions of this Part, shall, within 30 days of the pronouncing of the decision appealed against, file with the registrar of the court from which the appeal is brought a brief setting forth the grounds of his appeal which shall be signed by the appellant or the legal practitioner representing him.

(6) An appellant, shall file as many copies of his brief on grounds of appeal, as there are parties to be served, in addition to the copies for the Court.

(7) In his grounds of appeal, the appellant shall set forth in separate ground, each error, omission, irregularity or other matter on which he relies or of which he complains with particulars sufficient to give the respondent due notice thereof.

(8) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (7), the grounds of appeal may set forth all or any of the following:

(a) that the lower Court has no jurisdiction in the case;

(b) that the lower Court has exceeded its jurisdiction in the case;

(c) that the decision has been obtained by fraud;

(d) that the case has already been heard or tried and decided by or forms the subject of a hearing or trial pending before a competent Court;

(e) that admissible evidence has been rejected, or in admissible evidence has been admitted by the lower Court and that in the latter case there is no sufficient admissible evidence to sustain the decision after rejecting such in admissible evidence;

(f) that the decision is unreasonable or cannot be supported having regard to the evidence;

(g) that the decision is erroneous in Law;

(h) that some other specific illegality, not mentioned and substantially affecting the merits of the case, have been committed in the course of the proceedings; or

(i) that the sentence passed on conviction is excessive or in-adequate, unless the sentence is one fixed by Law.

(9) Where the appellant relies upon the grounds of appeal mentioned in subsection (8) (d), the name of the Court shall be stated and, if it is alleged that a decision has been made, date of such decision.

(10) Where the appellant relies upon the grounds of appeal mentioned in subsection (8) (g), the nature of the error shall be stated and, where he relies upon the grounds of appeal mentioned in subsection (8) (h), the illegality complained of shall be clearly specified.

(11) A sentence by a Magistrate Court shall take effect notwithstanding an appeal unless:

(a) a warrant has been under section 339 of this Law when no sale of property shall take place until the sentence has been confirmed; or

(b) that the sentence passed on the convict is excessive or in-adequate, unless the sentence is one fixed by Law.

(12) Where the appellant relies upon the grounds of appeal mentioned in subsection (8) (d), the name of the court shall be stated and, if it is alleged that a decision has been made, the date of such decision.

(13) Where the appellant relies upon the grounds of appeal mentioned in subsection (8) (g), the particulars of the error shall be stated and where he relies upon the grounds of appeal mentioned in subsection (8) (h), the illegality complained of shall be clearly specified.

(14) A sentence by a Magistrate Court shall take effect notwithstanding an appeal unless:

(a) a warrant has been issued under section 339 of this Law when no sale of property shall take place until the sentence has been confirmed or the appeal decided; or

(b) an Order for release on bail pending any further proceeding has been made by a competent Court when the time during which the convicted person had been so released shall be excluded in computing the period of any sentence which he shall ultimately undergo.

(15) A High Court exercising appellate jurisdiction shall not, in the exercise of such jurisdiction, interfere with the finding or sentence or order of the lower court on the ground only that evidence has been wrongly admitted or that there has been a technical irregularity in procedure, unless it is satisfied that a failure of justice has been occasioned by such admission or irregularity.

PART 47 :
SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS ON COMPOUNDING OF OFFENCES

Compounding of offence.

471. (1) The offences punishable under the sections of the Penal Code described in the two columns of Appendixes A and B may, subject to the subsequent provisions of this section, be compounded by the persons mentioned in the third column of that Appendix.

(2) When any offence is compoundable under this section, the abetment of such offence or attempt to commit such offence, when attempt is itself an offence, may be compounded in a similar manner.

(3) Where a person who would otherwise be competent to compound an offence is under eighteen years of age, an idiot or a lunatic, any person competent to contract on his behalf may compound the offence.

(4) The offence mentioned in Part I of Appendix B may be compounded without the leave of the Court at any time before the accused person has been convicted by the Court or committed for trial to the High Court.

(5) The offences in Part II of Appendix B may be compounded before the accused person is convicted by a Court or committed for trial only with the leave of the Court which has jurisdiction to try the accused person for the offence or commit him for trial.

(6) After a committal for trial an offence shall not be compounded except with the leave of the:

(a) Magistrate Court where trial has not commenced; or

(b) the Court trying the case where the trial has commenced and has not been concluded.

(7) After a trial has been concluded, an offence shall not be compounded except with the leave of the court to which an appeal would lie.

Appendix C

(8) The compounding of an offence under this section shall have the effect of an acquittal of the accused person.

Appendix C

(9) No offence shall be compounded except as provided under this section.

PART 48 :
FEES AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Payment of fees.

472. Subject to the provisions of this Law, such fees as may be prescribed under this Law shall be paid in any proceeding before a Court.

Suspension to payment of fees.

473. A Court may, in any proceeding in which good cause appears to the Court for so doing, suspend payment of any fee payable until the conclusion of the proceedings and the court may then direct the fees to be paid as costs by a party to the proceedings on whom the court has power to order costs to be paid or remit the payment of the fees.

State not required to pay fees.

474. The provisions of this Law relating to fees and to giving of security shall not apply to the State or to a public officer acting in his official capacity.
